In Memoriam

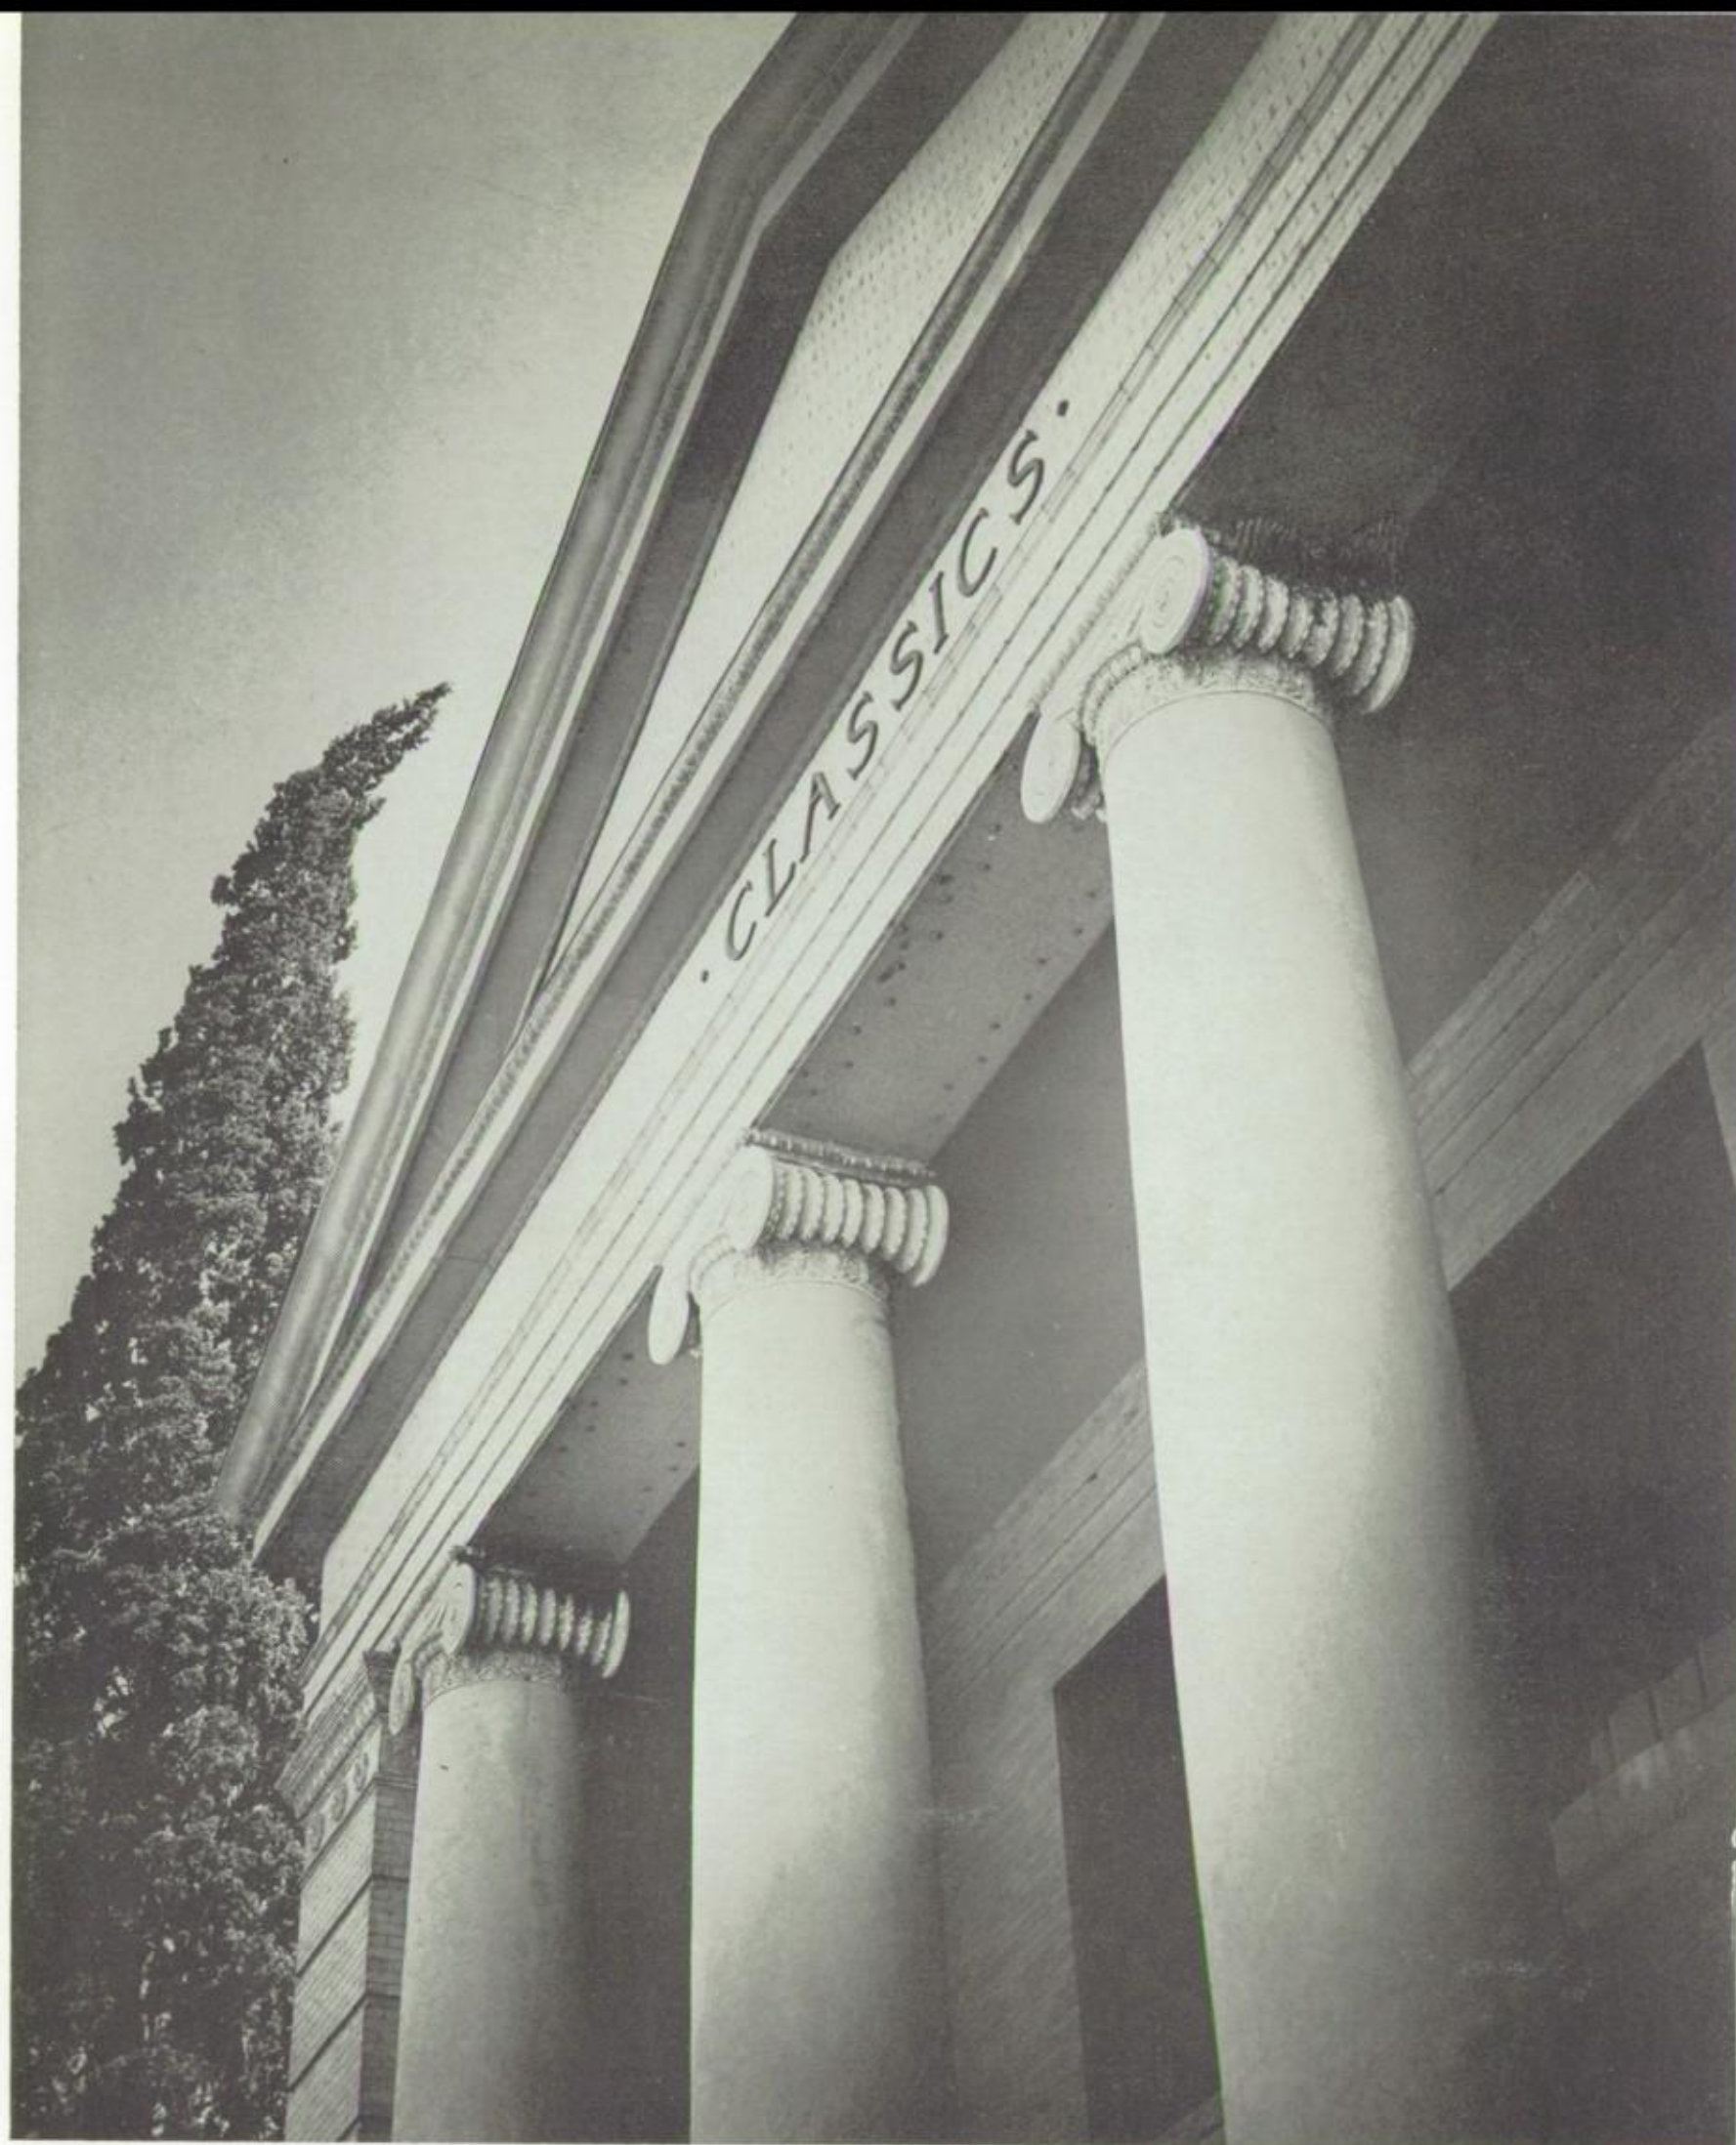

We remember a man whose leadership gave our band award after award, first place after first place, for year after year — a man whose musical touch left its indelible influence in every school and in every area of our city.

We remember his positive example of perfection and determination — a man who could be pleased with only the best, only the finest.

But we also remember a man whose truest and deepest concern was for the greatest good of any kind that he could help to bring about in and for those around him. We remember his unwavering friendship, firm and sure; and his profound sincerity, his discerning mind, his keen insight.

And for this man we felt only respect and admiration and true affection; and we, too, learned, in corresponding measure, to reach for the high standards that he held before us.

Thus, with the deepest respect and with a sense of humility, we dedicate this book to the memory of this man whose quiet courage and infallible integrity were sources of a fire of inspiration that burned within all who knew him.

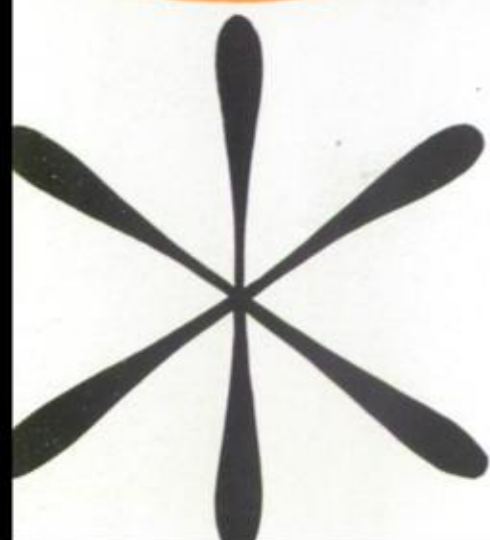

Quiet Dignity

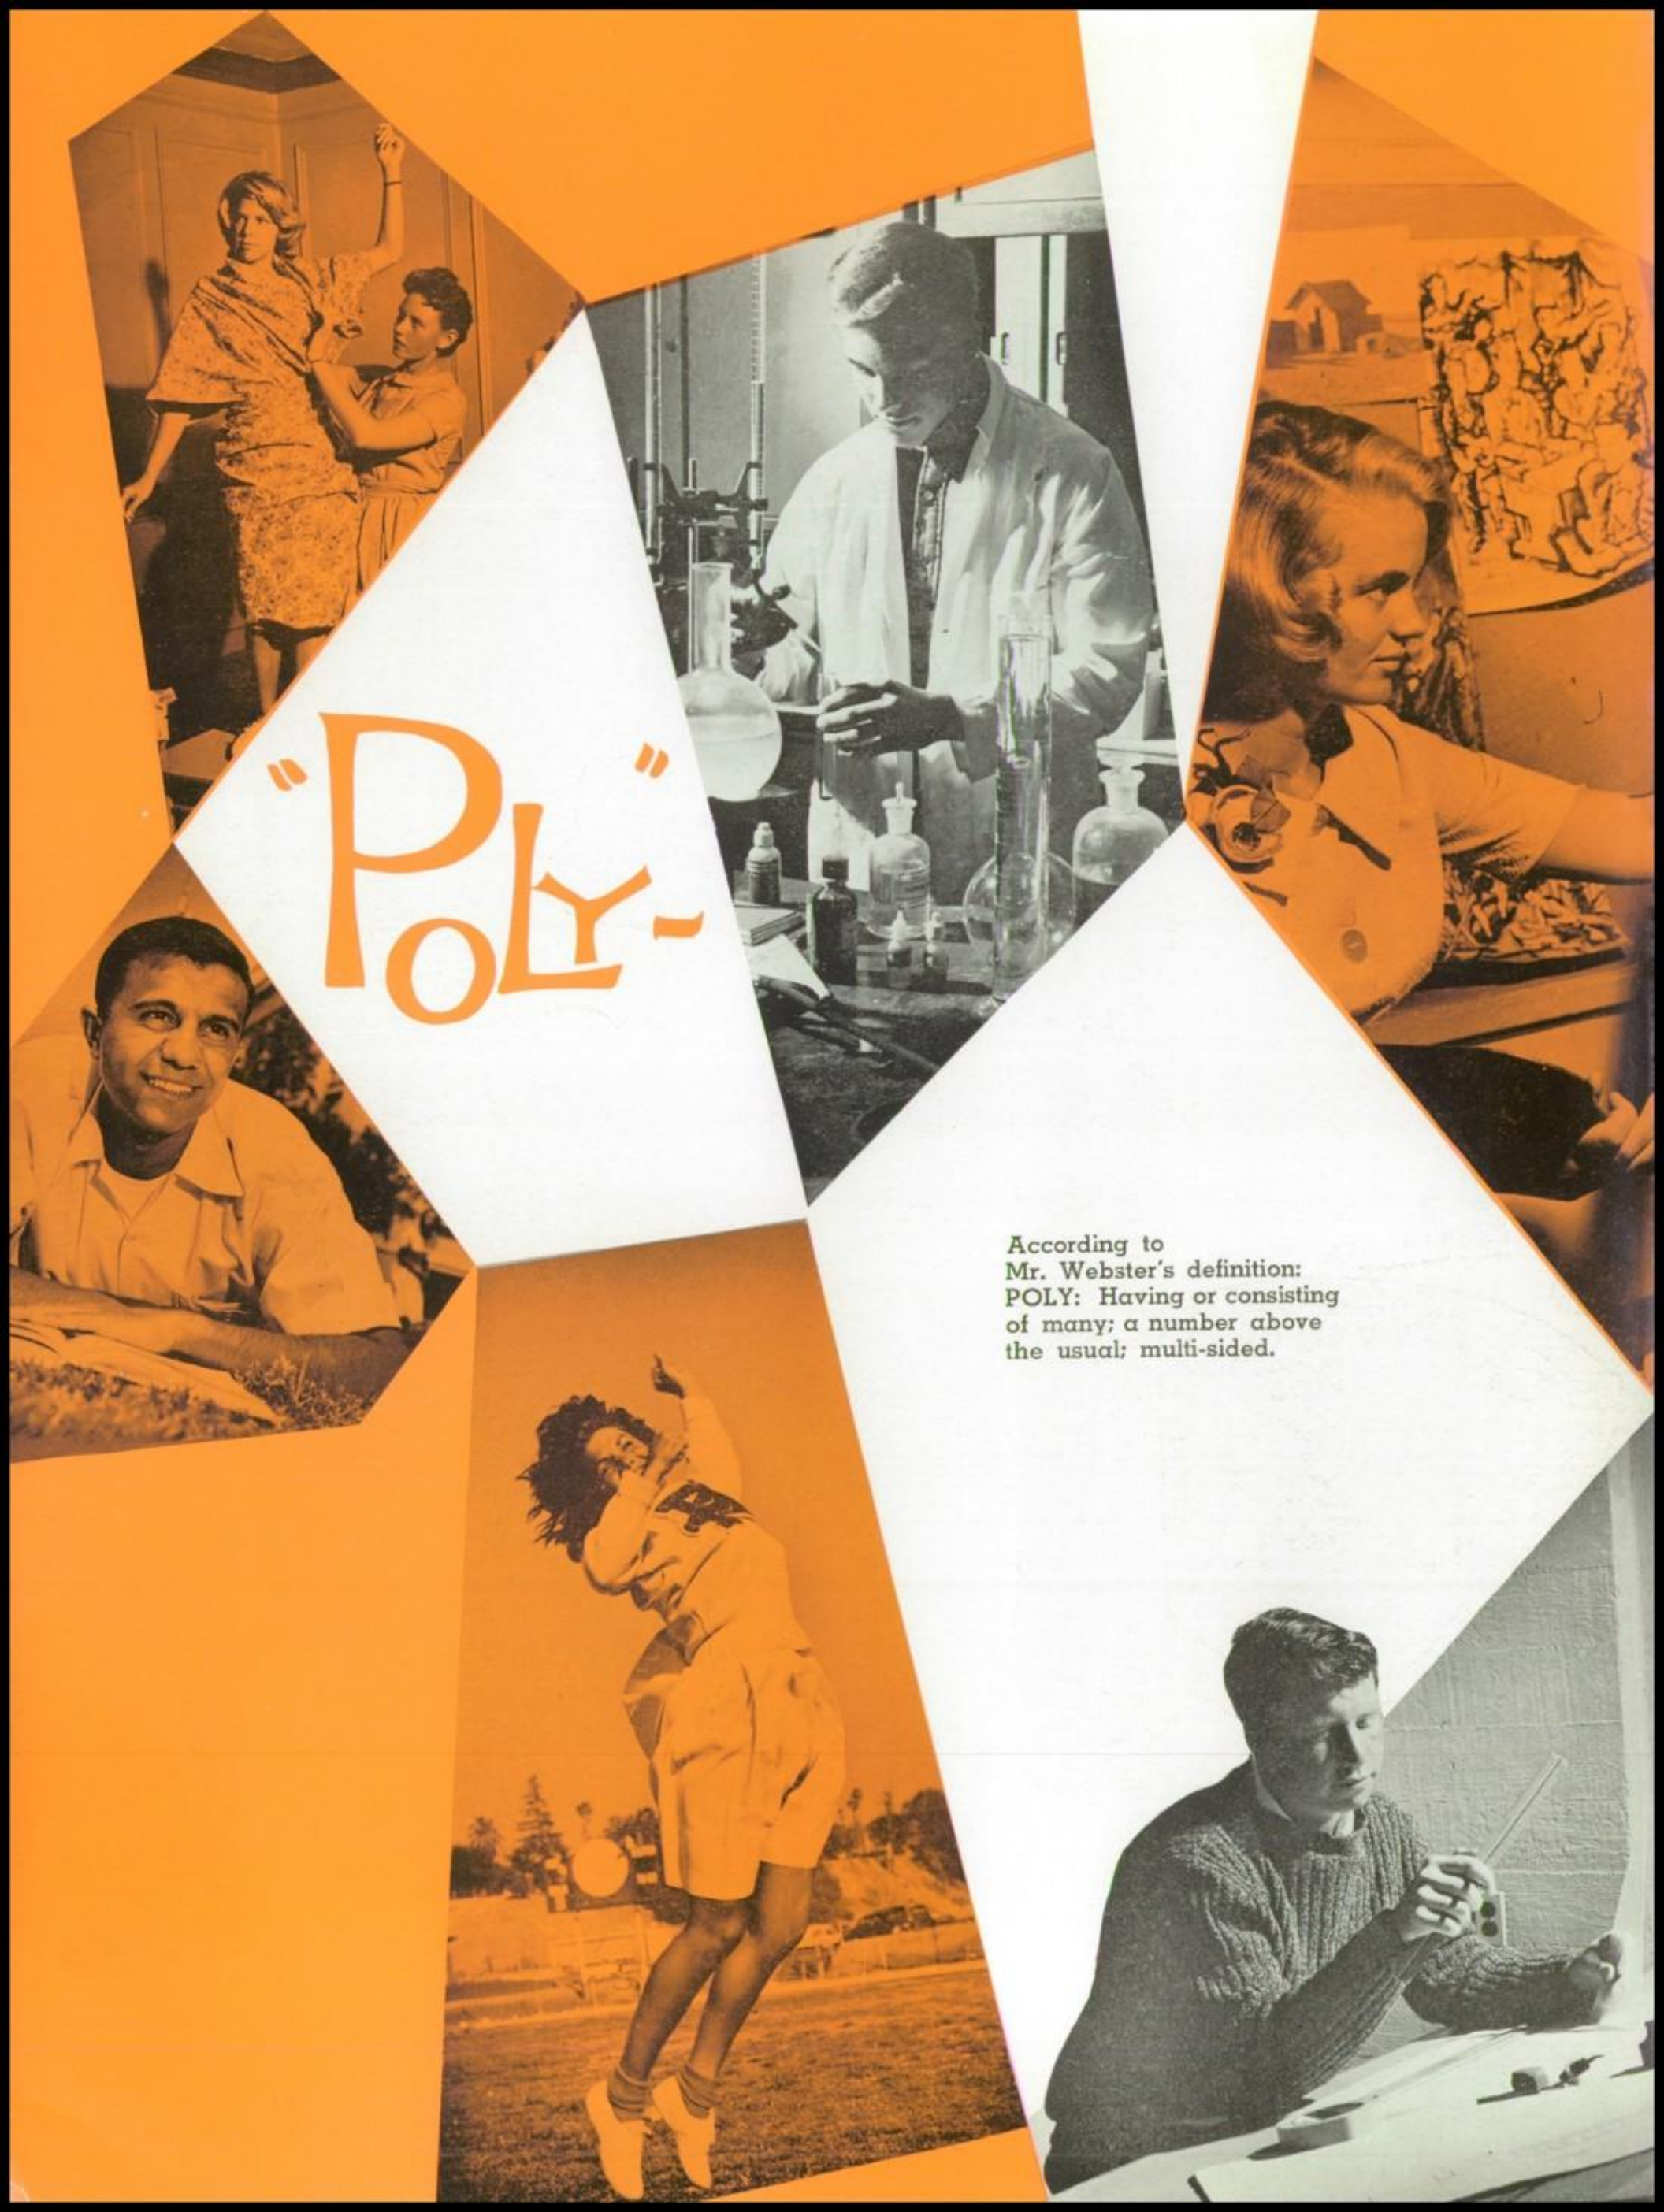

Welcome

world of . . .

Sounds like fun . . . but what is it? . . .

"Poly"

According to
Mr. Webster's definition:
POLY: Having or consisting of many; a number above
the usual; multi-sided.

The meaning of Poly goes far beyond the definition of Polytechnic. Poly is many-sided. There are many different people with many different interests and abilities. There are many subjects to be taken, many activities to join, and many sports in which to participate. Poly and its many sides has a multitude of meanings to each of us. To some it is rushing to classes, doing reams of homework at 11 P.M.

Sunday night, studying frantically for exams, the memory of singing the alma mater after a football victory, the beauty and excitement of the Prom, and finally, the thrill of graduation. Although Poly has many meanings, to most of us it will always be synonymous with many, many priceless experiences to be remembered.

Administration

It is Riverside's great and good fortune to have as Superintendent of Schools a man with such extraordinary qualities as MR. BRUCE MILLER. We wish to express our appreciation to Mr. Miller for his educational ability, his foresight, and the individual concern he has shown Poly. He always brings to his sure administrative strength genuine sincerity and a priceless sense of humor. We are always pleased and honored when he visits our campus.

They

The Parent-Teachers Association consists of people who devote their time and efforts to a better understanding among teachers, pupils, and parents. This year's officers are, Seated: Mrs. Alger Fast, Mrs. Andrew Balogh, Mrs. Arthur Mumper, Mrs. Mumford Ligon. Standing: Mrs. Brentwood Cruse, Mrs. John Roberts. Absent: Mrs. Jack Ferman, Mrs. George Zentmyer, Mr. Robert Wright.

The faculty, like any other organized group, has a board of officers to help plan their professional and social activities. (Oh, those wild parties!) This year's officers were: (SEATED) Miss Betty Anderson, Social Chairman; Mr. Charles Webber, President. (STANDING) Mr. John Pope, Treasurer; Mr. Paul B. Field, Vice President.

coordinated our Poly sides

The members of the Board of Education are well aware of the educational problems and needs of Riverside. They unstintingly devote time and effort to the betterment of our public education in every way possible. Standing: The Reverend Phillip Murray, Superintendent of Schools Mr. Bruce Miller, President Mr. Richard B. Hampson, Mr. Arthur L. Littleworth. Seated: Mrs. Gladys Babcock, Mrs. Carolyn G. Diffenbaugh.

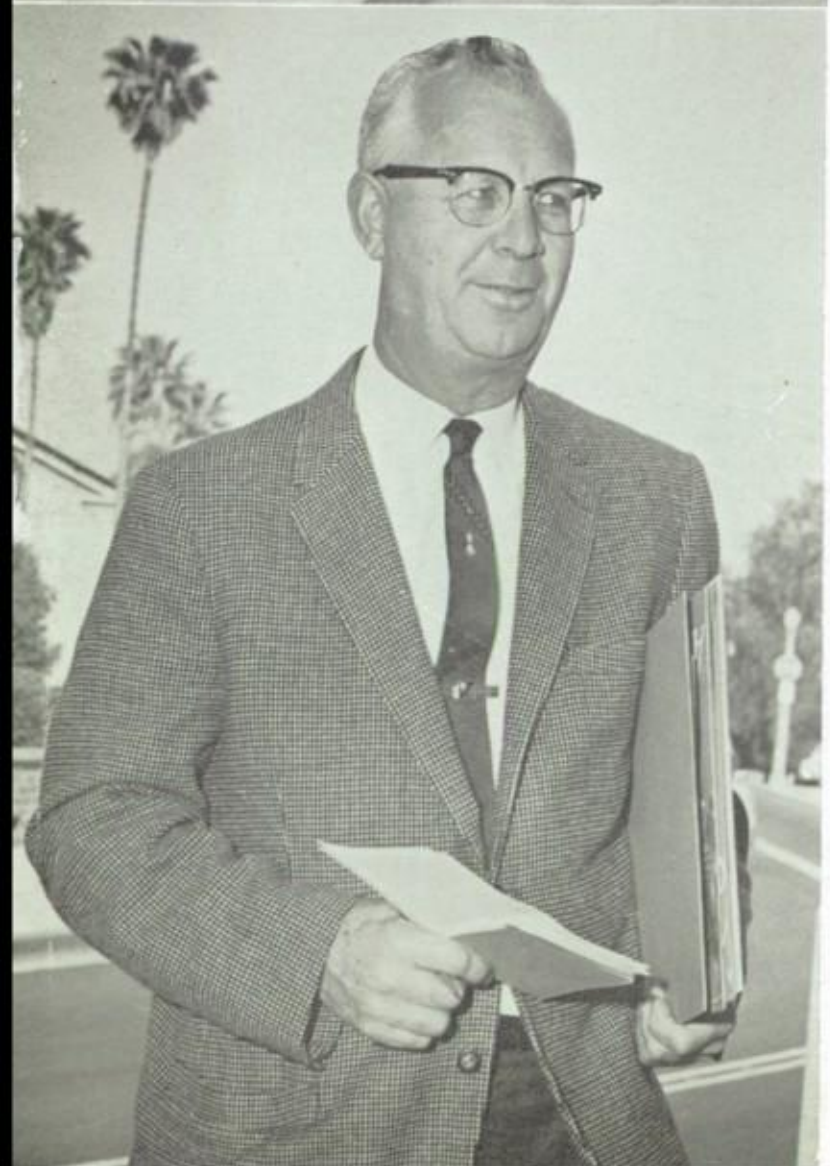

As Principal of Poly, MR. GEORGE WRENTMORE takes an active interest in all Polyites and their activities. During these past nine months every Poly student has come in contact with Mr. Wrentmore, either directly in conference or through the effect of his decisions. All have found him understanding, yet firm, and interested in the welfare of each individual. He personally shares in the joys of our achievements, the sorrows of our defeats, and the hopes of our future.

And saw that all went well

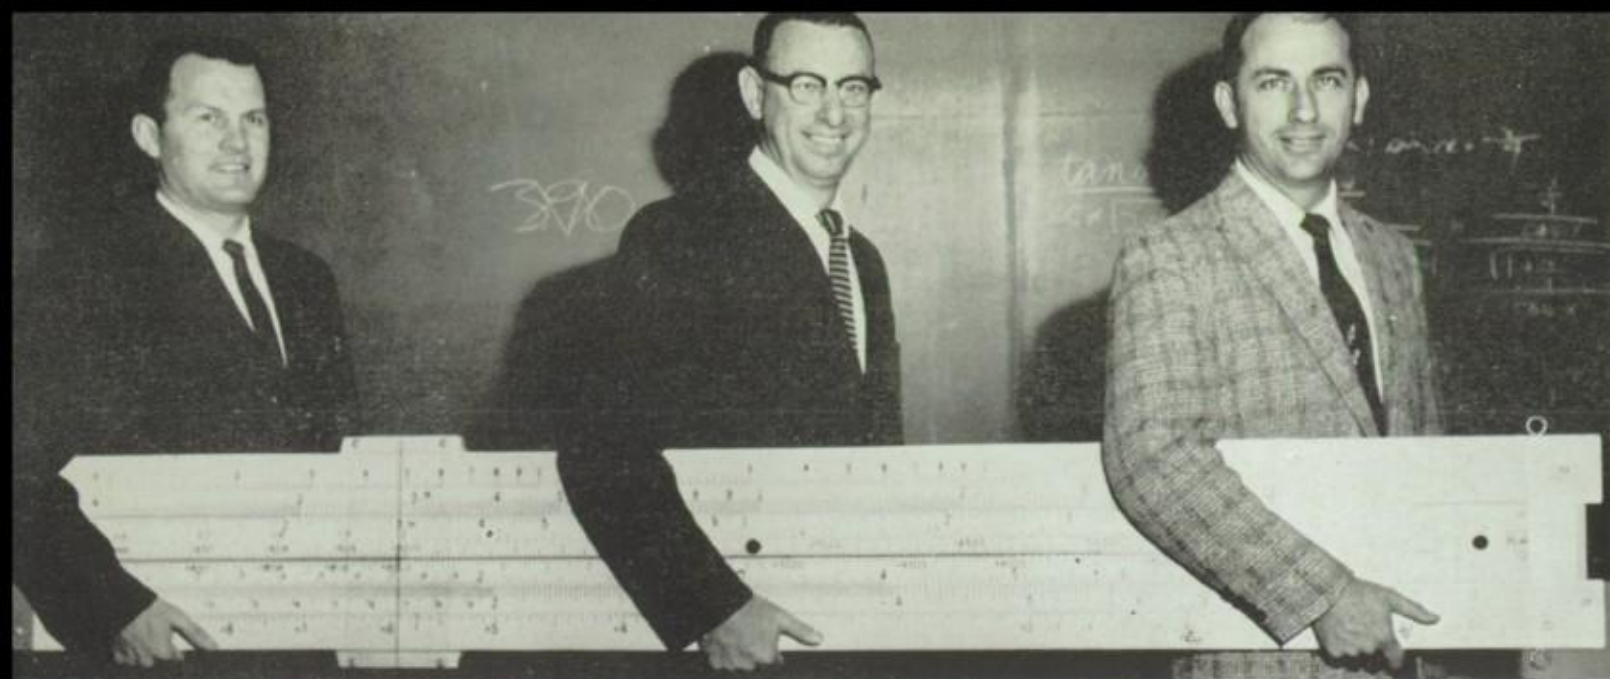

Vice Principal LUTHER DAVISSON carried out the duties of office with precision and dispatch. To be effective in this capacity one must know all, be considerate and understanding, and above all, be gifted with a good sense of humor. Polyites have come to know these characteristics in Mr. Davisson. Some say he has eyes in the back of his head—he seems to always know what's going on around Poly (good or bad)—he is considerate and understanding in troubled situations, and he has a unique sense of humor, as all who saw the Senior Class Assembly and "Uncle Luther" will affirm.

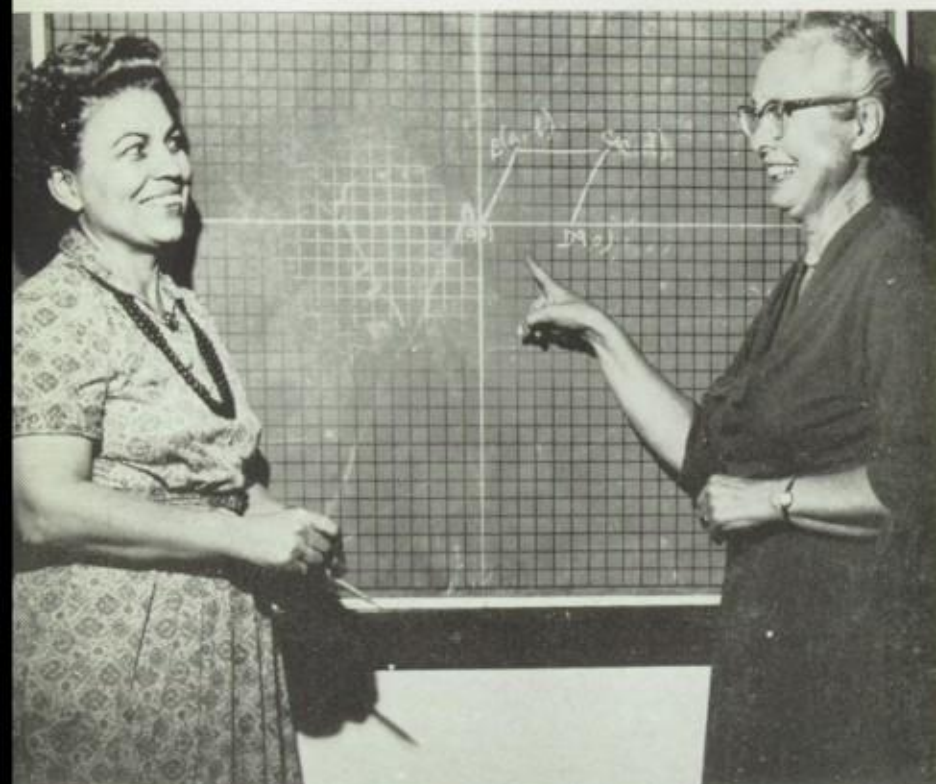

Throughout her many years at Poly, our Dean of Girls, MISS JEAN THAYER, has given her utmost in time, patience, and understanding to the ideals of young women. She has given invaluable assistance to the Girls' League Board and has been a warm and dependable friend to all girls at all times and under all circumstances.

MR. B. F. THORSON has enough responsibilities for many men. With 33 years of experience behind him, Mr. Thorson not only carried out the duties of Attendance Supervisor and Dean of Boys, huge jobs in themselves, but he also supervised student body funds, helped prepare the A.S.B. budget, directed athletic events, and supervised the ordering and control of all textbooks. If you have wondered what Mr. Thorson does around Poly, a better question would be, "What doesn't Mr. Thorson do?"

"And away we go!" cry MR. WILLIAM COLLOPY, MR. JOE ENGERS, and MR. DAVID BIGBEE. This is not a paddle board they are carrying, but a slide rule, their mathematics classes' short cut to long and involved math problems.

After their many years of teaching mathematics, MRS. SARAH VARNELL and MISS CAROLYN THORSEN have finally found their ideal student—one that can construct a perfect parallelogram.

From polygons

"There must be an easier way to get our math classes' homework," MRS. ANNE RUSH tells MRS. DOROTHY YOST. "Why didn't you bring the blow torch?"

In his exuberance to get to his knowledge-seeking mathematics class, MR. JOHN POPE nearly breaks down the door—but MR. HARRY MONSON is able to control him. (At least that's Mr. Monson's side of the story.)

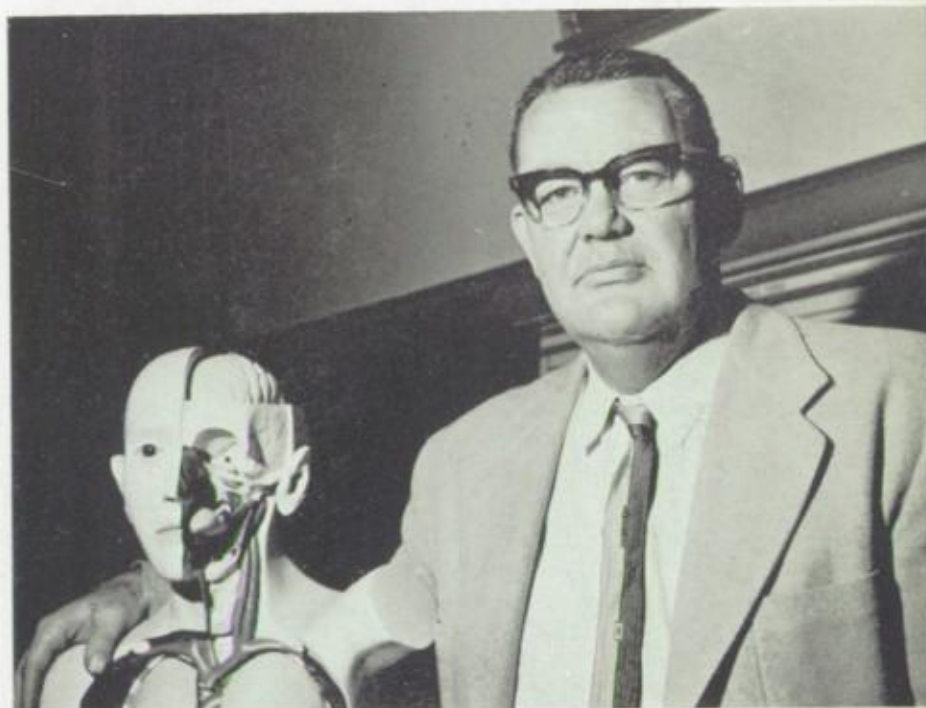

MRS. EMMA BLAKESLEY displays the Morpho Anazibia, well-known to her biology classes as a semi-rare specie of butterfly, originally from Brazil.

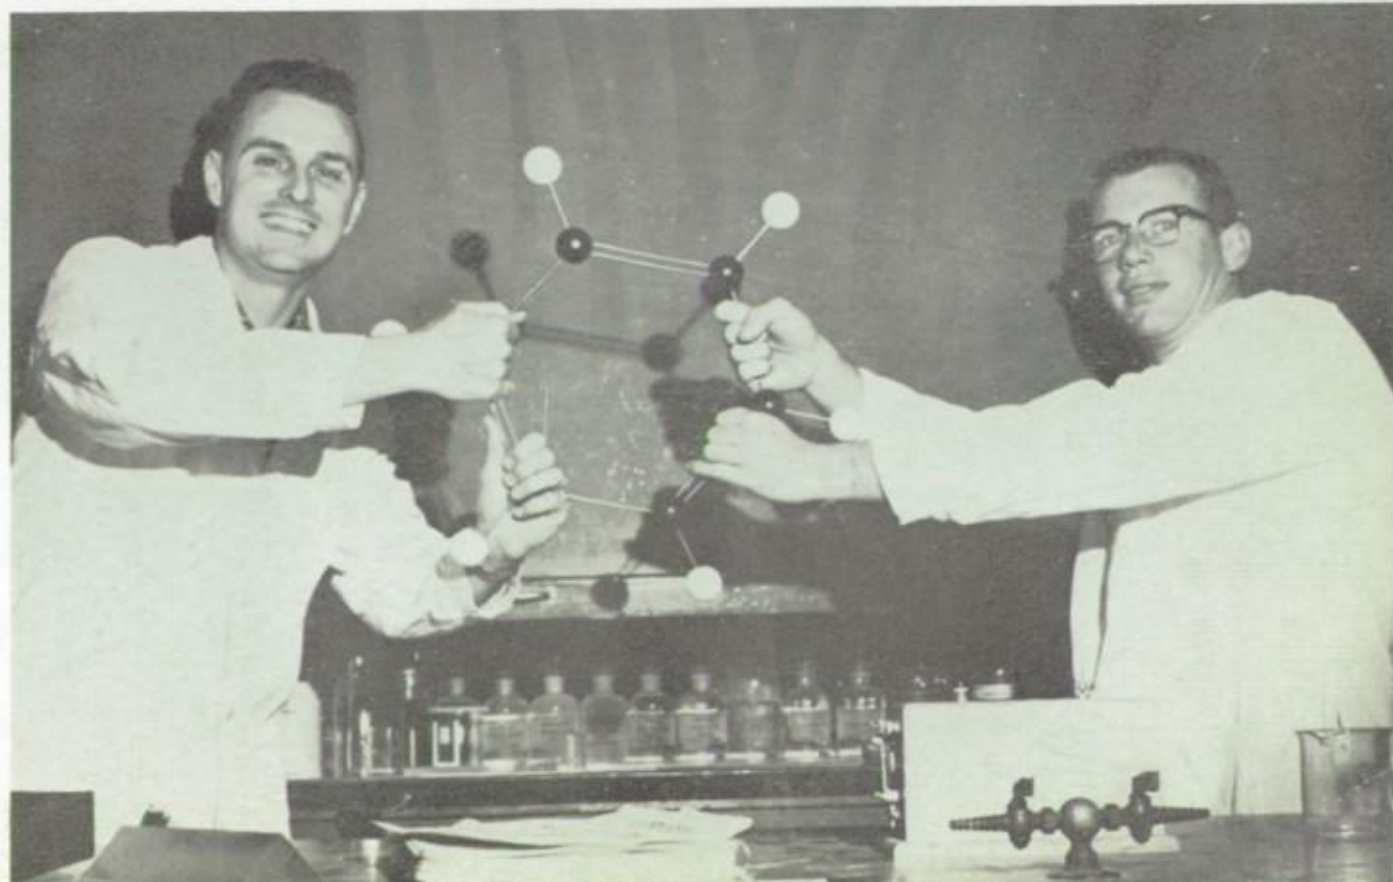

"Next? We maintain a democracy here . . . If you don't like my Physics lectures or my jokes," declares MR. WILLIAM BARNETT, "out you go."

and polywogs

Middle right: MR. DONALD BRUMMEL and friend are here to give biology classes the inside story.

"Give me back my benzene ring!!" declares Chemistry teacher MR. ROY RINGWALD to MR. JUSTIN LOUCKS, also a Chemistry teacher. "We're through."

MR. WILLIAM BELL III, and MR. GERALD MESSNER are in silent communication with Saint Read-This-Book-And-Turn-In-Your-Essays-On-Thursday, the patron saint of all English teachers.

Meet MISS MAY HENRY and MISS PATRICIA HENRY, English instructors. They have two things definitely in common; their last names and the love of English.

They went on

MISS ANNE BOWERS and MR HAROLD WILLIAMS not only teach English but also sponsor the California Scholarship Federation.

"Double, double, toil and trouble; Fire burn and cauldron bubble." MISS AGNES McABEE, English and Latin instructor, and MISS LAURA McKEEVER, English instructor, review for a Macbeth test.

MR. HOWARD HOUGH and MR. ROBERT McCLINTOCK, English instructors, watch for coming events. You see, the more extra curricular activities a student has, the more time he must have. Conclusion: More homework needed.

Someone is getting his English grades checked. But judging from the smiles of MRS. MARGARET WOOD and MRS. JUNE WARD, this student needn't worry.

to Shakespeare

English instructors MRS. PATRICIA EDWARDS and MRS. ERMA HALEY look over some of the stories and poems in "Bear Tracks," Poly's award-winning literary magazine. Mrs. Haley is the advisor for the magazine.

MRS. (COACH) THELMA PATTERSON tallies some of the scores at the inter-class track meet. As well as being an authority on English, Mrs. Patterson is also one of the most enthusiastic supporters of Poly teams.

"And this is but a small sampling of what your children learn in Physics," explains Mr. William Barnett to his "Students for the Evening" on Back-To-School Night.

Considering the grinning faces of MR. KELLY ADAMS and MR. RALPH BRAND, history and psychology instructors, we might conclude that they find something quite amusing. They aren't reading one of our standard history texts that's for sure!

And we learned

MRS. MARIE MACKENZIE, history teacher, points out to MRS. LOR-AINE THOMAS, also a history teacher, where she'd like to go on her next vacation.

MR. WALTER DAVIDSON and MR. WILLIAM JAMES demand complete attention from their history classes. But it is also evident from their good-natured smiles that words of humor are scattered throughout their lectures.

MR. OWEN EISTER, instructor of social studies and physical education, gives MR. JACK SMITH, history instructor, a few hints on making a pass. "You put the left hand on France and the right on South America —then heave!"

Social Studies teacher MR. OWEN EISTER discusses some of the problems of the world with one of his classes. Mr. Eister's lectures are good practice in note taking. (You don't leave with less than six pages of notes!)

Even teachers dream . . . or is MR. JOSEPH LEUENBERGER, French teacher, reminiscing?

"Oh, you can't go to college, your parents will hit the ceiling, and you might as well just die if you don't get an 'A'?" MR. LOUIS LIST, Spanish and French teacher, sympathizes with Linda Green.

There were the languages

"To think it took Caesar years to travel across Gaul and now you can fly across it in hours!" exclaim MISS GERDA SCHULZE, French teacher, and MISS GLADYS GILBERT, Latin teacher.

MR. WILLIAM BOOTH and MISS DELIA LOPEZ, Spanish teachers, make their get-away after giving their classes final exams.

"Let's give it the old college try," wail MR. ROBERT DERICK and MR. RICHARD STOVER, director of Poly's choir and orchestra.

of the arts

Only the sound of a good band would make MR. LESTER OAKS, band director, smile like this.

A stunning family portrait! Brushes and paper, students. You are about to paint MR. DONALD WHITE, MR. DONALD KNIE, and MR. RALPH BUTTERFIELD, art instructors.

With a watch to time them and a baseball bat to persuade them, COACH C. W. MUMMA and COACH BRUCE WILSON kept their track and baseball teams away moving.

There are a few definite advantages to being a physical education instructor, agree MRS. ROSE ROBERTSON and MISS SUZANNE ELLIOTT. "Take my class today, Rec. Leader; it's such a lovely day to get a tan."

The man in this striking pose is Varsity tennis coach, EUGENE HUGHES. Coach Hughes' motto is "practice makes perfect" . . . and practice is just what the team did.

Our fitness was

Don't worry, they'll make it. MRS. PAULA NICHOLAS and MR. ROBERT HALLOCK, swimming instructors, have paddled across Cutter Pool many times. It's not the Colorado, but . . .

CAPTAIN JOSEPH PIOTRZKOWSKI, MASTER SERGEANT CHARLES COBB, and SERGEANT FIRST CLASS RALPH HALL explain to their R.O.T.C. Class the function of a B.A.R. rifle. The photographer didn't wait to see it in action!

Driver Education teacher MR. ALVIN MARTIN is ready to give his first driving lesson of the day. He is very calm because his first class is with girls and they aren't allowed out of the parking lot for at least fourteen days!

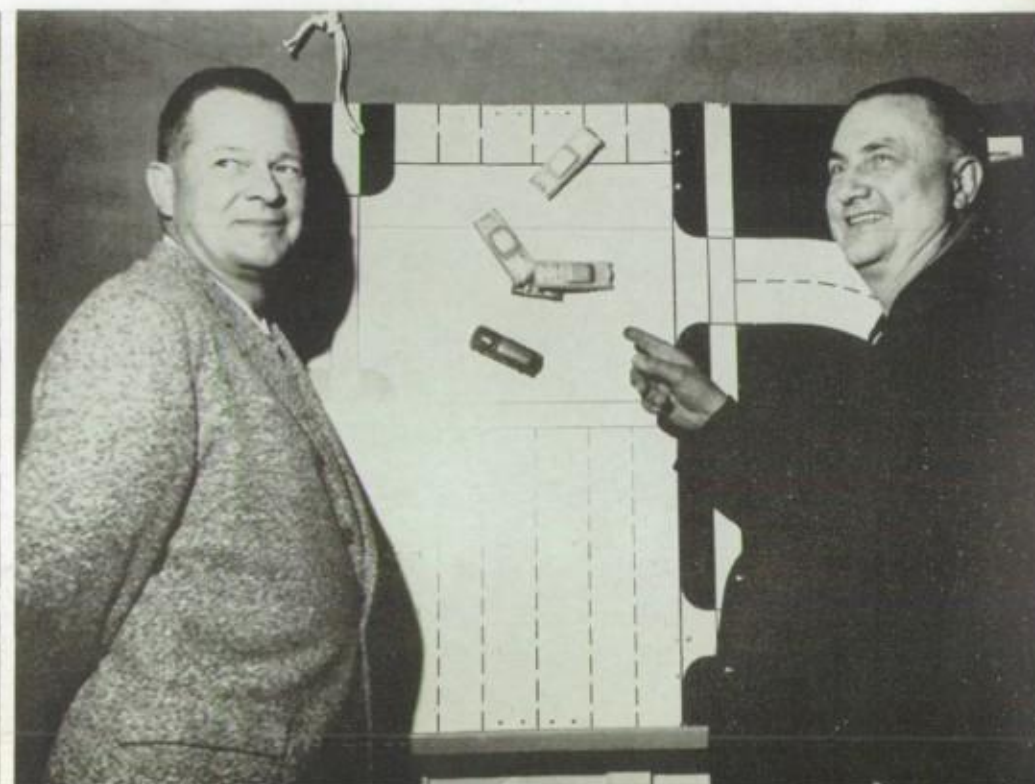

MR. RICHARD CURRY! Oh . . . you say the school offers extra funds for the special summer psychiatric sessions for all Driver Education teachers?

We became driver-wise

MR. PRESCOTT COGSWELL and MR. JOHN ELLIOTT take a few minutes out of their schedule of Driver Education classes to relax in the neat and businesslike Driver Ed room.

MR. LESLIE EYNON lectures to his class on who has the right of way at intersections. "Always give the right of way to pedestrians, dogs and women drivers," advises MR. CECIL CUSHMAN. "See what happens if you don't?"

MISS DOROTHY SCHNEE is the perfect example of a neat and efficient business education teacher.

MRS. MARGARET POFAHL, business education instructor, counts out MRS. DOROTHY ROONEY'S change. Mrs. Rooney soon finds out Mrs. Pofahl, as supervisor of the A.S.B. store, keeps a close eye and a heavy hand on incoming and outgoing money.

and business-wise

Below: We don't know what this adding machine tape reveals, but whatever it is, MR. JOHN SHIRILLA, business education teacher, and MR. ROBERT WRIGHT, book-keeping teacher, seem pleased.

Right: MISS BETTY ANDERSON and MISS MARGARET ELLIOTT take a deep breath before climbing the stairs to their first period commercial education classes.

Home economics instructors MRS. CLEO ZEHNPFENIG, MISS MARY SCHOULER, and MRS. ELAINE GREENE taught the finer points of cooking, sewing and homemaking.

MR. PAUL RUPEL and MR. JOHN OLIVER, mechanical drawing teachers, discuss with Ralph Bradshaw his architectural drawing entry in the county fair. Incidentally, Ralph won the sweepstakes in his division.

They were skillful

You'd have to be an expert in mechanics to understand the functions of all these parts. Luckily MR. CHARLES WEBBER, MR. IRVING HICKS, and MR. GEORGE MOSHER, shop teachers, are experts.

MR. GEORGE BRONSTRUP'S woodshop classes turned out some really professional-looking furniture. Many of the things made in woodshop took first place in the Indio Fair this year.

MR. RALPH INGERSOLL and MR. GEORGE BRONSTRUP would really rather be inside the boat. But leaning against it will just have to suffice until June 17, at least!

The agriculture classes hold teachers MR. ZOLA DUBOIS and MR. HAROLD SEIGWORTH captive. From the efficient way these men handle the farming situation at Poly, they could probably be of some help to President Kennedy and his farm problem.

"No, not another story about a boy and his dog," cries MR. ROBERT DYER, drama teacher. MISS NANCY SHINGLER, speech instructor looks a bit disillusioned, but she does understand.

Print shop instructor MR. RICHARD EPP and Spotlight advisor MR. ROBERT PHILLIPS assist Spotlight Editor Kathey Wheelis with copy for the paper. How did you say you spelled Wojamakowski?

MRS. HELYN GILKESON, as head of the Health Office, has cared for everything from broken legs to Senioritis.

As they educated

MRS. MARGARET BLACKWELL, MRS. MARION MORRIS, MRS. MONNIE PECK, and MR. RAYMOND RIGGIO consult one of the books most often used in their special education classes—the dictionary.

Librarians MRS. WINIFRED TURNER and MRS. MARY JANE WERNER got requests for everything from Aristotle to zoology to Mad magazine.

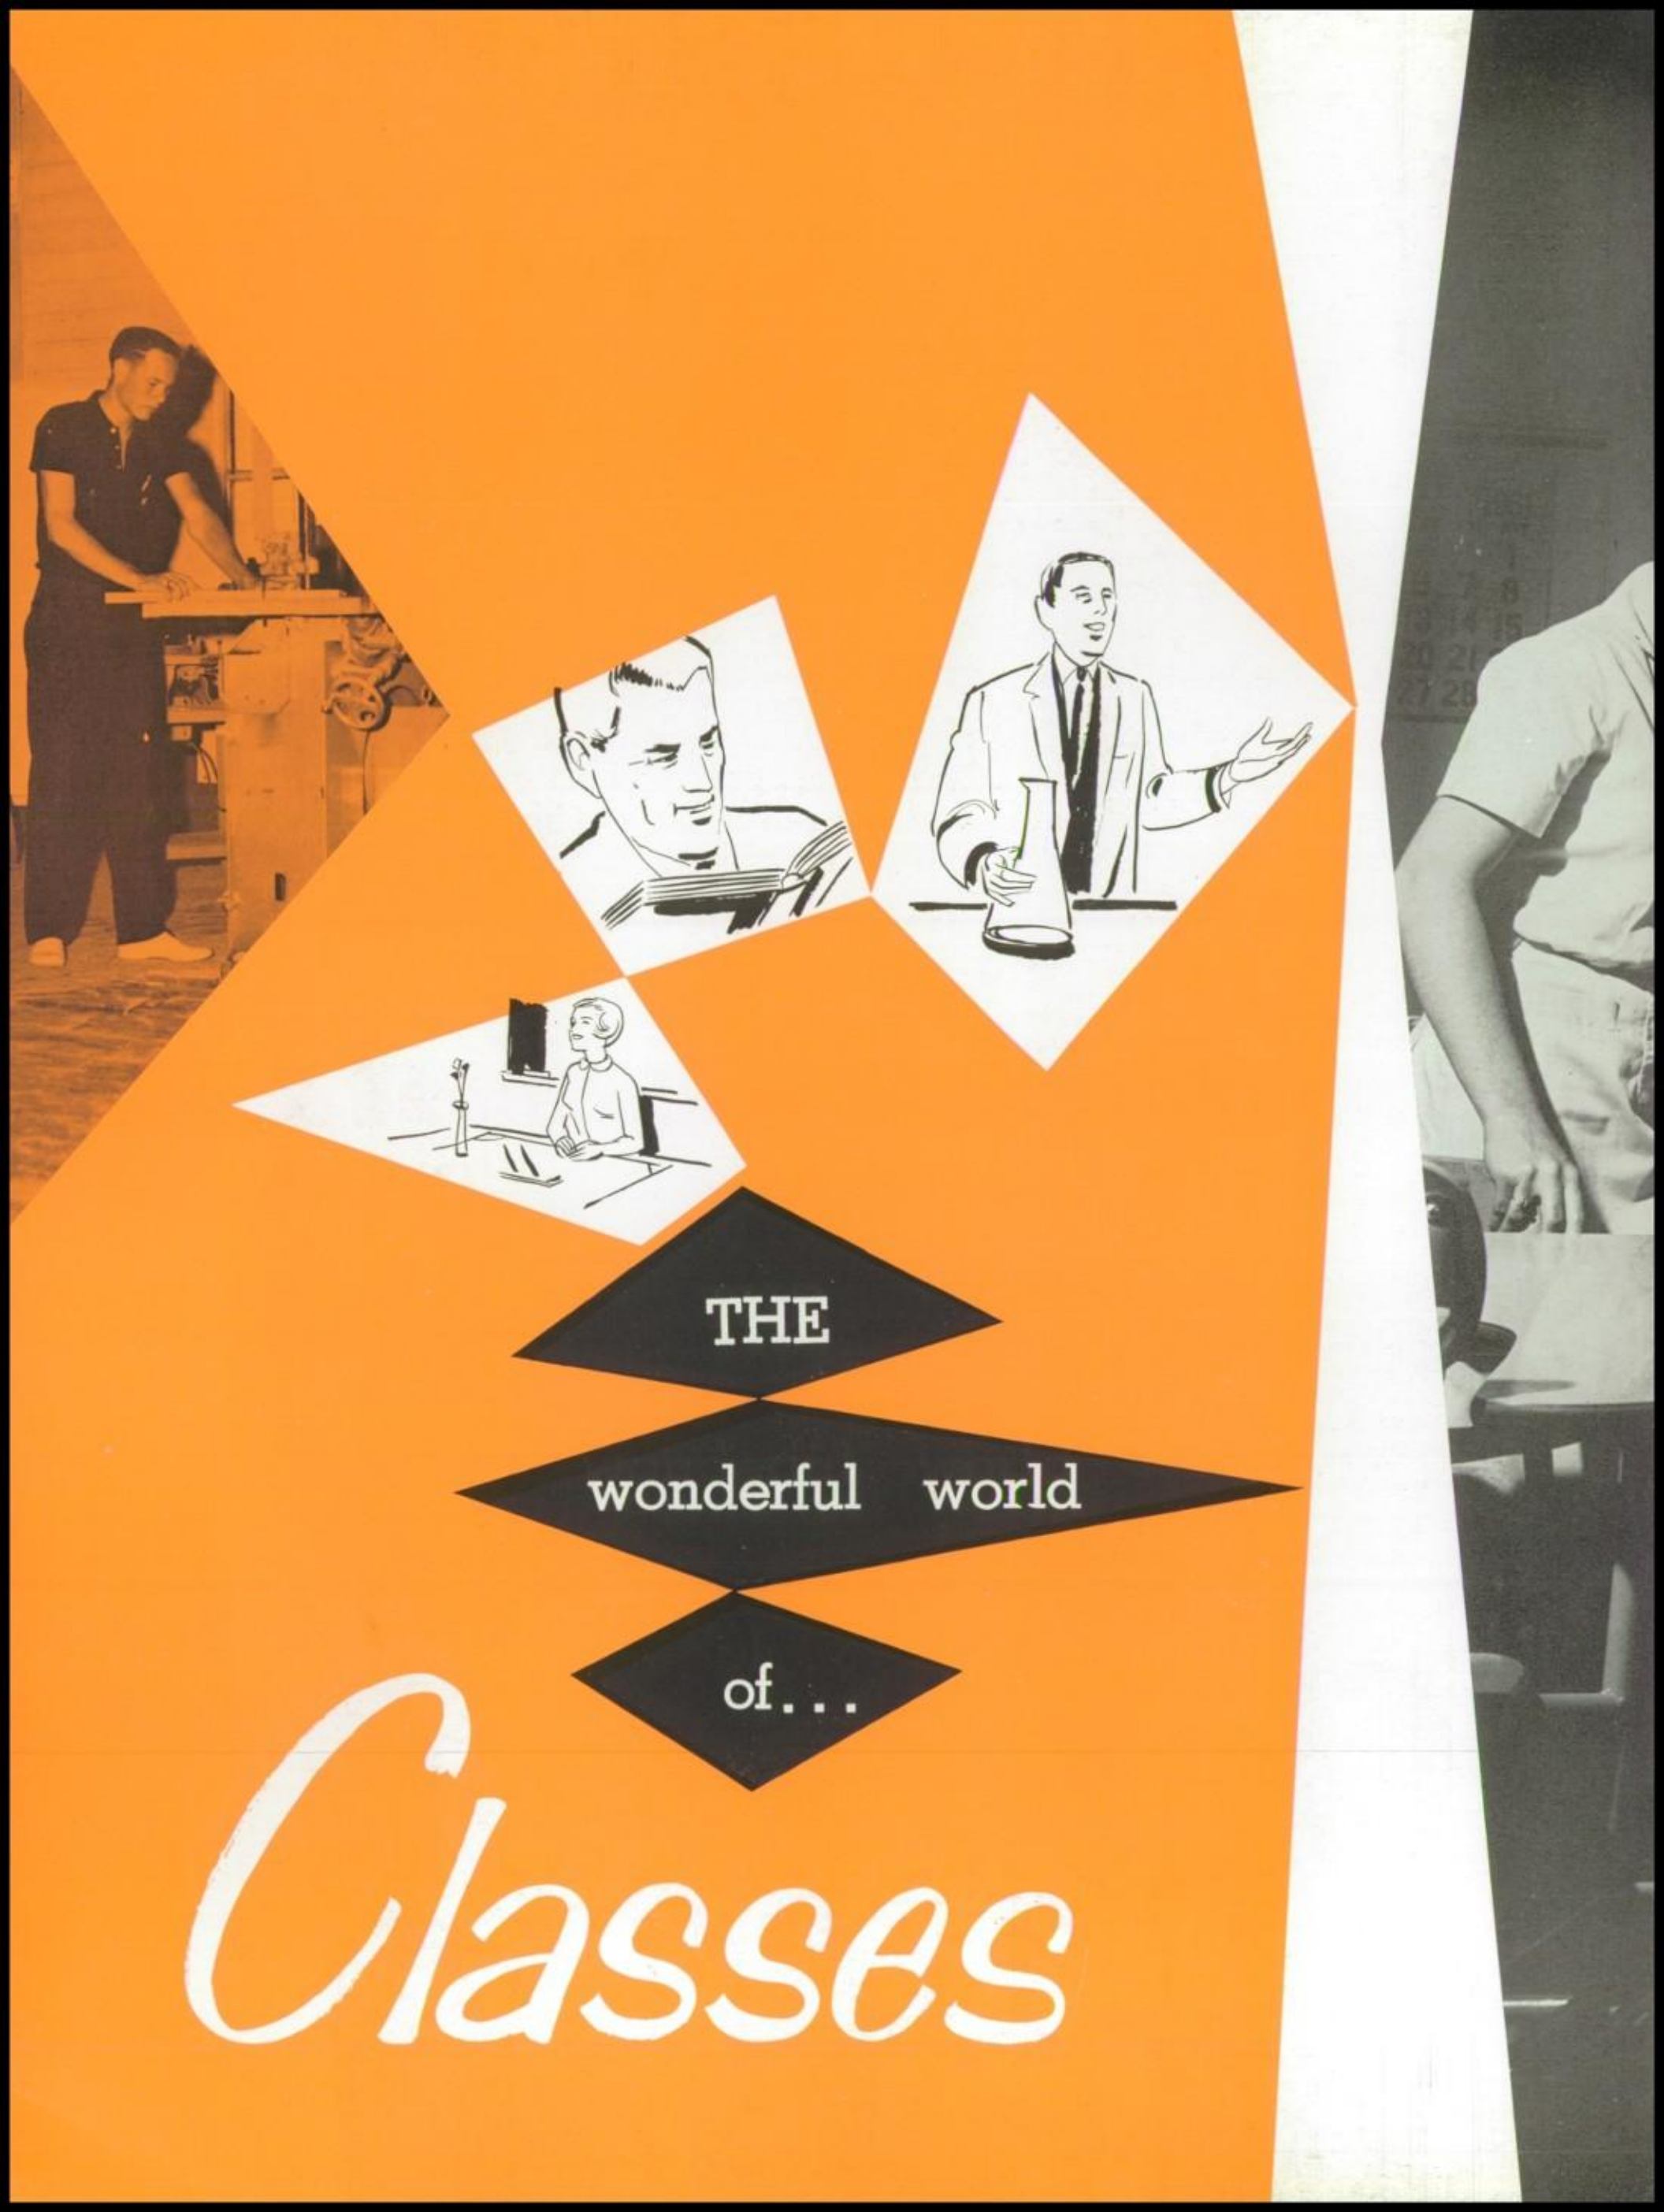

These ladies are experts at typing manuscripts and other documents of value, taking telephone messages, answering questions about Poly, and doing other numerous jobs that duty might call for. Seated: Mrs. Ruth Smith, Miss Judy Bassett, Mrs. Mae Myers, Mrs. Margaret Horton, Mrs. Janet Marshall, Mrs. Margaret Parlin. Standing: Mrs. Martha Chesley, Mrs. Katherine Jones, Mrs. Vera Searle, Mrs. Rachel McIntyre, Mrs. Veda O'Keefe, Mrs. Helene McDaniel.

"I'll have a purple slush—no, make it an orange. No, guess I'll take a purple one," were familiar words to the lunch stand workers. Row 1: Mrs. Jeanette Witmore, Mrs. Susie Stevens, Mrs. Mildred Fisher, Mrs. Aileen Maran, Mrs. Mary Hegerick. Row 2: Mrs. Violet Hansen, Mrs. Lucy Smith, Mrs. Edith Gregory, Mrs. Claire Jackson, Mrs. Geo Mae Anderson, Mrs. Agnes Luallin.

The cafeteria women met many hungry individuals with a smile and efficient service. Row 1: Mrs. Kay Lewis, Mrs. Grace Faro, Mrs. Sara Townsend, Mrs. Edith Stout, Mrs. Esther Scapple, Mrs. Ruth Green. Row 2: Mrs. Sibyl Whitten, Mrs. Riba Harris, Mrs. Lucile Patterson, Mrs. Deane Miller, Mrs. Viva Randall, Mrs. Joyce Dondero.

Classes

This was the year of many activities for the class of '61. There were plans to be made for all these activities: the Senior Mid-Winter Ball, Senior Class Assembly, Senior Day, Baccalaureate services, and the Graduation dinner and dance. These were the jobs of the Senior class officers Andy Petlansky, Vice-President; Randy Snyder, President; Chuck Calley, Boys' Welfare; Janet Loomis, Social Chairman; Penny Hogan, Girls' Welfare; Kathy Lindeburg, Treasurer; and Maxine Maxwell, Secretary.

The

Mrs. Ruth Wheeler and Mr. Milton Tew accompanied the Goips through their three years at Poly. With their help in personal counseling and class scheduling the seniors made their way with the fewest tears possible.

1958 is a year to be remembered by students, teachers, and administrators. This was the year the class of '61" began their career at Poly. We were dubbed "Goips" by our Superiors, produced a class assembly, and the then-Sophomore Robin Blank won first place in the frog stand in the inter-class trackmeet, a triumphant moment for the Goips. Our second year began with the cry of "Popcorn! Peanuts!", a cry we tried to make just a little bit louder than the previous classes . . . and we gave the seniors a most memorable "Midnight in Paris." Our senior year was jam packed with activities, studies, and dreams about the future. This year our Bears won the C.B.L. championship in football . . . our Senior Mid-Winter Ball was a dreamy affair . . . we gave the student body a musical assembly starring typical Joe Senior, Dave Butler, and his day dreams . . . and we produced "Twelfth Night," and it was Shakespeare at his funniest. The year sped along terribly fast . . . and before long we were ordering Senior announcements, caps and gowns, and tickets for our Senior dinner and graduation. This year outshines our previous years in achievements in all phases and, most important, in maturity. And although we are all anxiously awaiting the world before us, we leave with the fondest memories of our many friends, teachers, and experiences we have enjoyed throughout our three years at Poly.

Thanks to the patience and efforts of our advisors, Mrs. Thelma Patterson, Miss Laura McKeever, Mr. Donald Brummel, and Mr. George Bronstrup, we experienced an organized as well as an eventful senior year.

Seniors were tops

The seniors let their hair down for their Senior Day. They dedicated a new Senior table to Poly, held an assembly, ate lunch on Wheelock Field, played tug-o-war, wrestled with the medicine ball and went swimming. Donnie Aaron, Attila Gungor, Kay Schooler, Barbara Boynton, and Kim Hill participated in the rather messy fun of the pie-eating contest.

The Senior Class Assembly depicted school affairs as they might have been in different phases of history. In this scene typical Joe Senior, Dave Butler, attends a Roman dinner sponsored by political bigwigs for $100.00 a grape.

The Juniors maintained a middle position in the many phases of Poly life. Their voices were heard above the cheering football crowds shouting, "Peanuts! Popcorn!" . . . and consequently they were financially able to present the Seniors with the wonderland of "Carousel." They produced "The Many Loves of Dobie Gillis" and an assembly of pictorial hilarity. They had a wonderful year, right in the middle of things.

The Juniors were in the middle of

Mary Estudillo, Girls' Welfare, discusses her newest campaign for woman suffrage with Robert Wilson, Boys' Welfare.

The class sponsors who gave their time and advice aiding the Juniors in planning their activities were Mr. Walter Davidson, Mrs. Patricia Edwards, Mrs. Winifred Turner and Mr. Zola DuBois.

Top right: Because of parent conferences, student problem discussions, and programming, such as this schedule review with Jan Hempstead, the Junior Class Counselors, Mr. Arthur Smith and Mrs. Wiletta Mulkey, rarely enjoyed a moment of leisure.

As Janet Loomis spoke these immortal words, "Characterized by their middle existence where they hang by a single strand, ever-fearful of dropping into the swirling, whirling vortex of life," the Sophomores stood reverently before this group of superior Seniors and were traditionally christened "Yucaiques."

The Sophomores were fortunate to have these understanding counselors, Miss Alice Hedden and Mr. LeRoy Watters, who guided them in adjusting to Poly and assisted them with their three-year academic schedules.

In a Democracy you must have representatives, and for the Sophomore Class they were council members, Row 1: R. Dickerson, C. Broadbent, B. Skilling, S. Albin. Row 2: Mrs. Pat Robertson (sponsor), J. Karlin, A. Balogh, B. Arbon, C. Pickett, and Mr. John Pope (sponsor).

Activities

The Commission led

Advisor to the Commission, Mr. William James, stood always ready to assist or advise when needed.

As Commissioner of Boys' Welfare and President of the Bruins Club, Dave Wheatly represented the boys at Poly. And considering Dave had approximately 1,100 girls to contend with, he had quite a job.

That is no ordinary far-away look in Lynn Carpenter's eyes. She sees what all Commissioners of Domain see: Poly as the epitome of clean campuses.

Among other things, the House of Advisory, presided over by Fran Gunther, A.S.B. Vice President, discussed and investigated the organization of a girls' drill team. Fran didn't overrule that motion!

"Why, thank you! Mother always told me I had a magnetic personality," says Tim Lyons, Commissioner of Finance.

As Commissioner of Girls' Welfare and President of Girls' League, Judy Platt worked to better the school life of the fairer half of our student body.

Commissioner of Activities Lynn Trimble organized the sales of rooter bus tickets, booster buttons, and pep ribbons, and also acted as coordinator of pep assemblies.

Poly activities

A.S.B. President Bruce Goss kept the Commission in line and represented Poly at various school and community activities. A man of few words, Bruce proved that action is more effective than words.

Along with the safety-economy run, Steve Webber, Commissioner of Safety, also organized a campaign to improve parking conditions at Poly.

With the help of her staff, Commissioner of Publicity Daisy Williams not only produced hundreds of posters to keep the forgetful ones informed but also supplied many activities with pretty usherettes.

Far right: Kitty Davis' many odd jobs, in addition to her official responsibilities as Commissioner of Records, kept her too busy to sit on the president's lap.

Lower right: As Editor of the Spotlight, Kathey Wheelis represented the paper on the Commission as Commissioner of Current Publications.

Commissioner of Entertainment Ernie Ligon obligingly gives a moment to Vice-Principal Luther Davisson. Mr. Davisson's plea: "Please, Ernie, not Elvis."

As Koala Editor, Sandra Blutman also served as ex-officio Commissioner of Literary Activities.

As Editor, Sandee Blutman had a massive job ahead of her. The 1961 Koala needed a theme, lots of new ideas and a leader who could assure a completed and successful book. Sandee fulfilled her job—the book you see before you.

Activities Editor Kathy Evans defies anyone to say Poly isn't an active school. If you've said it, take a good look at the Activities section of this annual—better yet, count the pictures.

"Handling this dirty old money isn't such a bad job once you get used to it," claims Business Manager Karen Goranson.

The Koala preserved

Mr. Kelly Adams must keep nourished to meet the responsibilities of Koala Advisor. Though his staff realizes the extra stamina required, the diet-conscious girls continue to drool.

Lynn Baughn and Sharon Jensen found the job of Sports Editor both huge in responsibilities and full of human interest. What other girls had the opportunity to work with the coaches and football, basketball, baseball, tennis, and swimming teams?

Tracking down our fast-moving faculty isn't the easiest of jobs—especially if you want their pictures. But Faculty Editor Sandi Foulke proved that with determination and a strong arm the job can be done.

Advertising Editors Connie Chace and Mari-beth Jester congratulate each other on their first ad. Only $1,977.50 to go!

Very few know the trials and tribulations of completing a high school annual. Only those who have taken the pictures, alphabetized the thousands of names, organized page layouts, and written copy could understand the sense of relief at the sight of a successfully completed yearbook. Advisor Mr. W. Kelly Adams was encouraging in dark and seemingly impossible situations, and he was firm when a job seemed to be lacking. The staff worked steadily and diligently to complete this book. Thus out of all the strife and turmoil in the inner recesses of Room 12, there miraculously emerged this Koala, which we hope is a coherent assemblage of interesting words and pictures. On these two pages are the creatures who put all of this together.

Copy Editor Janet Loomis has adopted this philosophy: the fewer words, the better.

Sophomore and Junior Class Editor Sharon Soden had moments when she wished Poly consisted of only seniors. Who wouldn't, with 1,600 underclassmen waiting to be identified?

There are many requirements for a good photographer: patience, a steady hand, a sense of humor, and ability (including the ability to act as a tripod in emergencies.) Barbara Drake and Eric Fristad demonstrate all the needed requirements.

With her contagious enthusiasm, her ability to do a job well, and her natural knack for writing effective editorials, Spotlight Editor Kathey Wheelis, along with her staff, kept the quality and standards of the Spotlight high.

Spotlight reporters Mary Beth Cochran, Leonard Cochran and Bill King apparently did not quite agree about the spelling of a word. Triumphantly, Mary Beth points out the correct spelling of etaoins shrdlu.

They spotlighted

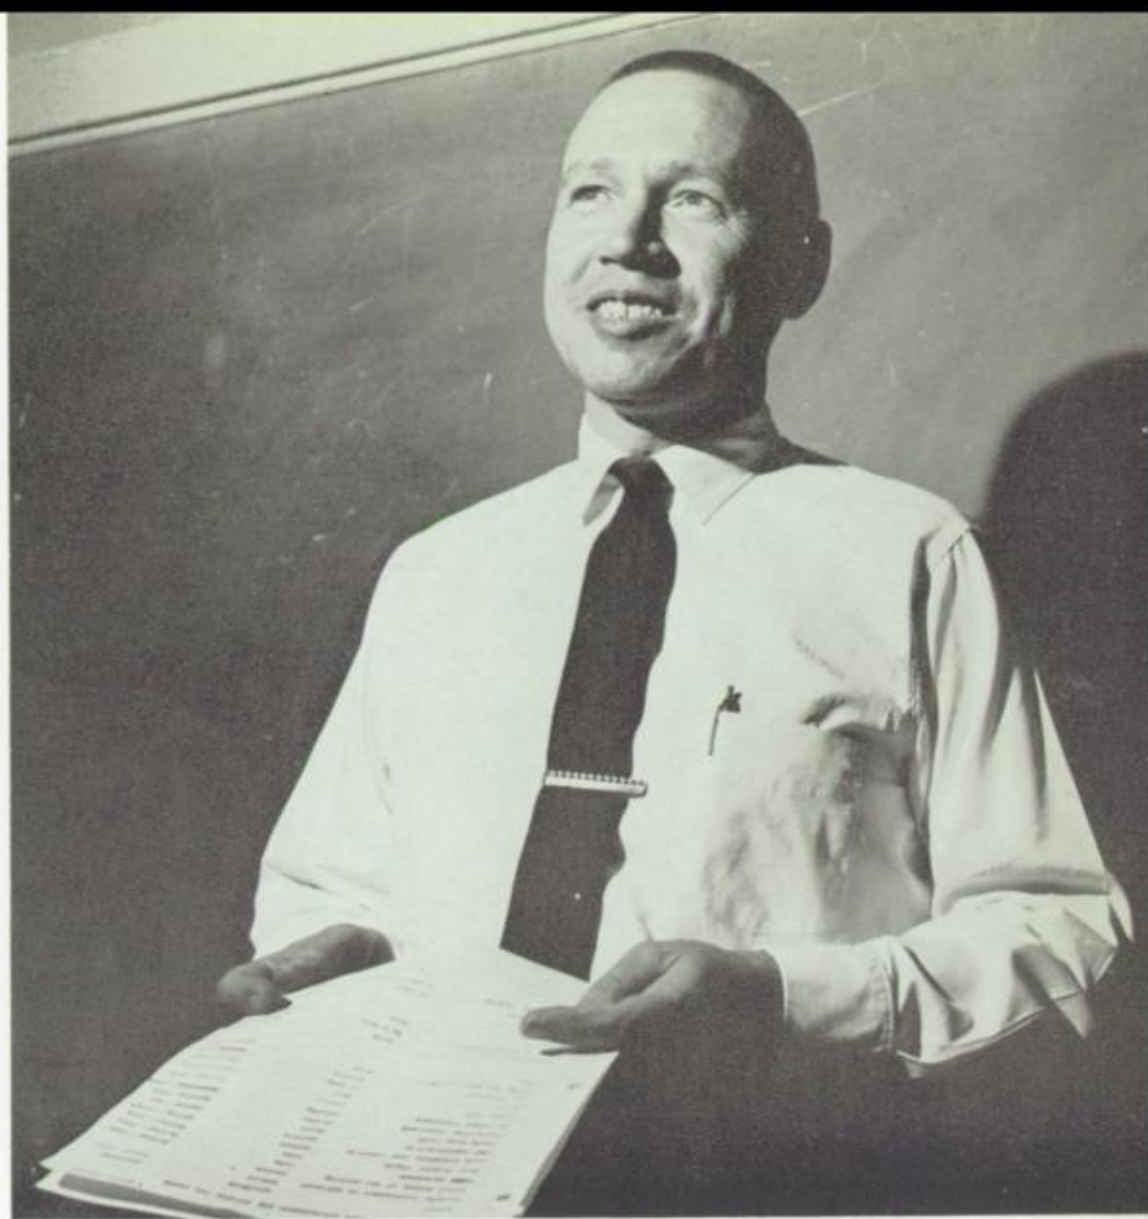

One of the many jobs of Assistant Editor Mary Sands was inspecting the final copy for the presses.

As reporters for the Spotlight, Sandi Williams, Janice Hutchins, Tina Rataj, and Kathie Kalmar were either searching the campus for news or pounding feverishly on the typewriter to meet a deadline.

Arnette Parry, Mike Barnat, Carol Hull and Gloria Gundry are occupied with their staff duties. Typing up copy, checking for errors and just plain getting the news are only a few jobs of a reporter.

"The deadline for all newspaper stories is yesterday," Mr. Robert Phillips warns his Journalism class.

As photographer for the Spotlight, Don McCoy has taken so many pictures he claims he can work the camera with his feet.

Business Manager Judy Moore kept the records straight and the Spotlight out of the red.

Lower right: "If you don't like the way I set the type for your Sports Section, you can just do it yourself," says John Hoyle, Chief Compositor. And maybe Sports Editor JoAnn Cullen will!

"We have already tried the drug and department stores. Who shall be our victims this week?" Advertising Manager Bonnie Engleman questions her cohort Ron Sappington.

Les Girls had their

Girls' League Advisor Miss Jean Thayer and Girls' League President Judy Platt worked hard to make the year a success. Under the competent guidance of Miss Thayer and Judy, the Girls' League was able to achieve many of its goals.

The Service Board soon found out which junior girls were the industrious ones. The board kept track of the service hour points required to be on the Daisy Chain. The members were: Front: Sharon LaBonde, President. Row 1: B. Miller, C. Andrews, J. Male, V. Hudson. Row 2: R. Carey, J. Fischer, D. Williams, E. Labadie, S. Chaffee. own High Hopes

With "High Hopes" as their theme, the Girls' League Board put to work many new ideas and included many more girls in GL activities. The members are: M. Cochran, J. Wolters, T. Rataj, J. Graham, L. Sirks, M. Jester, S. Morrison, P. Holliday, B. Ballen, J. Platt, J. Graumann, L. Rendell, K. Schrewe, K. West, C. Thompson, A. Parry, S. LaBonde, C. Shervanick.

Seniors and their dates danced to the music of the Elks Club Band at the Senior Mid-Winter Ball, Ice Fantasy.

Some people will do anything for attention. But in this case Dick Kilday (the boy hanging from the rafters), Gail Wegner, and Bob Harwood are decorating the Women's Club for the Senior Mid-Winter Ball.

"I'll take one of those, two of those and about a half dozen of the little green ones." Serving girl Carol Poling finds senior Karen Goranson and her date, Don McCoy, easy to please.

These seniors kept their books open and grades high in addition to participating in the many senior activities. They earned membership in the California Scholarship Federation. Row 1: L. writing, acting, and speaking

This group of stage-struck individuals is Poly's dramatic club, Jesters, led by their spirited president, Sue Molitor. They are: S. Molitor, A. Straubinger, B. Matus, K. Kingsbury, C. Stewart, D. McCoy, D. Grinker, R. Margisan, T. Lyons, E. Pennington, C. Hayman, M. Cochran, F. Harding, R. Dickenson, R. Sappington.

This year's National Forensic League has had the greatest participation ever known to Poly. The group consisted of 50 "sophisticated rhetoricians, oft inebriated with the exuberance of their own verbosity." The debators were busy participating in 19 debate tournaments, in which they always rated high. This year the league had 14 finalists in the Citrus Belt Speech League and three finalists in State competition, Brian MacWhinney, John McCune, and Tom Brill, the largest representation in the history of Poly. The NFL is to be congratulated on its many honors and awards. Individually and collectively they represented Poly in fine rhetorical fashion.

NFL participants were: Row 1: D. Illes, M. McGinnis, C. Anderson, K. Kroger. Row 2: B. Cliff, J. McCune, T. Brill, B. MacWhinney, Miss Nancy Shingler, Advisor. Row 3: J. Aschmann, C. Bicher, S. Marshall, M. MacWhinney, C. Eckert, J. Olson, R. Brown. Row 4: L. Hamilton, F. Savoie, D. Summers, L. Wade, V. Hall, E. O'Neal. Row 5: J. Lynn, J. Cliff, K. Driskill, B. Hall, D. BRUINS CLUB officers for this year were B. Mayers, Vice President, J. Neumann, Secretary, D. Wheatley, President, and R. Watts, Treasurer.

KEY CLUB President Enos Reid (the fellow on top) and his officers Vice President Bud Froome, Secretary Peyton Cole, and Treasurer Jeff Rice were the brains behind the club's meetings and activities.

They gave time and energy

With a friendly smile and a willingness to work, the CANDY STRIPERS made the days of hospital patients brighter. Row 1: A. Ziman, B. Drake, B. Labadie, S. Skelley, L. Walling, B. Hampson, B. to the service

The POLY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE was one of the most active organizations at Poly. These girls, many times with only a day's notice, produced many posters publicizing school events. They also ushered at many school and community affairs. These members are J. Cullen, M. Bagwell, C. Bereal, L. Carpenter, D. Williams, S. Martin, J. Hempstead.

Among the many projects of the CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP CLUB were the pre-Easter services, open to all Poly students. Row 1: T. Pendleton, V. Yen, J. Ryon, President, J. Robbins, R. Fraker. Row 2: Miss Pat Henry, Advisor, J. Hill, C. Pickett, E. Patterson, B. Wooten, J. Fraker, J. Stone.

side of Poly

If you like candy you'll love the AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE—they sold tons of it during their candy sale. The money they earned will help sponsor the future foreign exchange students from Poly. Row 1: C. Lashlee, C. Hayman, J. Straka, President, V. Hudson, P. Thomas, M. Caterinichio. Row 2: Mrs. L. Thomas, Advisor, M. MacWhinney, K. Brown, M. Robinson, E. Hamilton, P. Hamilton, F. Savoie, J. Ridley, C. Esgate, J. Nazarro, P. Galvin. On the floor: Attila Gungor.

Katy Schrewe and Attila Gungor arrived at Poly as bewildered, but extremely likeable, foreign exchange students. They have since become accustomed to American ways and have actively participated in school and community activities. We have learned to love Katy and Attila and their countries, West Germany and Turkey.

The POLY CONCERT BAND represented Poly in parades and events throughout Southern California. They won numerous awards and upheld Poly's high musical standards. The members were: P. Aagard, L. Anders, R. Avila, M. Bain, D. Bixel, J. Bradley, J. Briggs, R. Brown, C. Calley, D. Clarke, L. Colson, T. Conner, E. Cooper, J. Cornwell, S. Cox, P. Darley, A. Dickinson, M. Driskell, K. Dutro, J. Together they were polyphonic

Members of our orchestra broadened their musical experience by participating individually and collectively in "Pirates of Penzance," "Twelfth Night," the A.S.B. play, and various other programs. They were: K. Ashbrook, L. Bankey, S. Bareham, S. Blankenship, C. Boody, J. Bradley, M. Dean, R. Diamond, M. Dosal, M. Doughty, G. Fast, T. Guin, B. Forbis, P. Hamilton, D. Hamilton, L. Hirst, M. Mr. Lester Oaks directed the band in an outdoor Christmas concert for a standing room only crowd.

This scene from Gilbert and Sullivan's "Pirates of Penzance," presented by the music department, shows Major-General Stanley (Roger Clark) being captured by the rough but likeable pirates.

"Stay Frederic, stay! They have no legal claim, no shadow of a shame will fall upon thy name," cries Mabel (Kathy Barto) to her love, Frederic (Ralph Taylor) in "Pirates of Penzance."

And multi - talented

The vocal ability of this year's choir brought both pleasure to those listening and satisfaction to the choir members. The participants were: S. Barrett, S. Barrett, K. Barto, H. Burnstedt, B. Burton, G. Cardinale, F. Casem, R. Clark, C. Clayburg, G. Cook, C. Conn, J. Criswell, R. Criswel, R. Custard, M. Dean, R. Dryden, A. Edwards, L. Edwards, L. Edwards, M. Ferman, P. Fitch, R. Football coaches BEN HAMMERSCHMIDT, OWEN EISTER, and EARL MARSHALL have much to smile about. Their football team ranked first in League standing and, most important, improved in technique and team work throughout the season.

CHAMPS!

The gun sounded on Wheelock field for the first Varsity football game of the 1960 season. Though Compton was plagued with penalties, they edged Poly 41-25. Coach Hammerschmidt's boys were heavily favored for their second game, but Chaffey nevertheless edged Poly 12-7 in another non-league game. But the Bears were not beaten yet, and for their third game, Las Vegas found Poly somewhat improved. The score: 8-7. This same story of victory was told after both the Colton and Pacific games. The scores: 19-13 and 31-19. Fontana was closely edged by our Bears by a score of 19-15. One of the most exciting games was with Ramona. The score was Poly 38 and Ramona 12. Though rated underdogs to the tune of 13 points, Poly scored first, last and twice in between against the strong defending CBL Champion, Redlands, who entered the game touted as the first team in Southern California. The score: 14-13. The Bears, along with the San Bernardino Cardinals, then began to eye that CBL crown and there was rejoicing in Bears-ville the night the Bears beat San Bernardino in a very close game and became the CBL Champions. But this wasn't the end; "CIF Championship" sounded good to the Bears and they went on to play Long Beach 47-12, and win their first CIF game. Though we were rich in hope, our Bears suffered their first which was to be the last, defeat to Centennial. The score: 21-13. This was a football season always to be remembered by our team, coaches, and the massive audiences that never missed a game.

The cagers

This 1961 Basketball season promised a rugged battle for the Varsity team. With only two lettermen, Tom Fulkerson and Doug Johnson, returning from last year, Coach Rife moved up fast-moving juniors, Darryl Oveson and Bob Rule, and two sophomores, Mike Fulkerson and John Ferman, who fought hard and made wide improvement. Because of their lack of experience the team was building for the future.

The Bears won their first league game with a score of 47-45 against Colton. The next six games were discouraging in many ways. Poly was defeated by Pacific 47-52, Redlands, 40-52, Fontana 46-51, Ramona 49-62, San Bernardino 37-66, and Colton 37-59. The Bears were determined to emerge from this rut and in their return game with Pacific they won 49-51. And though Redlands once again made a substantial win against them, 73-51, the Bears reversed the previous story with Fontana and won 63-55. We didn't sing the victory song after our second game with Ramona, 42-68, but the Bears in their last game of the season made a favorable showing against San Bernardino with the score 47-40. What this year's basketball team lacked in experience and total points they made up with practice, improvement, and spirit.

Many students, parents and teachers viewed the excellence of this year's trackmen. Out of five CBL meets, the Poly Bears won all but one, which was to San Bernardino, the final champion. In their first three meets, the Bears proved their speed, technique, and concentration, and beat Redlands, $36\frac{1}{2}$ - $33\frac{1}{2}$, Fontana 72-32, and Ramona 72-18. Their fourth meet was a loss to San Bernardino $36\frac{1}{2}$ - $67\frac{1}{2}$, but they were triumphant in their last two meets with Colton and Pacific, 92-12 and 72-32. The Bears took second place in CBL, Spike-O-Rama and the Santa Ana Relay, a record of which they can be proud.

Number one singles tennis player, Fred Heinold, called "service" and the 1961 tennis season began. Except for their first game with the UCR JV's, and a tie-game with Ganesha, they made a sweeping win over all their non-league games. This same story was told in their CBL games. The first game with Colton ended in a 22-11 victory. In the second game, as in the fourth and fifth with Fontana and Ramona, the Bears didn't give Pacific a chance to catch its breath, and they won 33-0. The next game was a bit closer, and Poly edged Upland 17-16. Poly moved into a first place tie with Redlands in the Citrus Belt League by routing San Bernardino 25-8. Redlands had a perfect score of 198 points for and none against them, while Poly had 159 points for and 39 points against. But Redlands maintained their perfect record and won the CBL Tennis Championship with the score of 23-10 against our Poly Bears.

Wegner to Horacek to Coffin—Poly's winning double play combination scores again against the San Bernardino Cardinals. The final score was Poly 4, San Bernardino 3.

The season for the great American pastime was quick-moving and exciting. The Bears had 6 victories out of the 12 games played and they placed third in CBL.

The Bears were off to a good start and won their first league game with Colton, 3-1. In their next game they were defeated by Pacific, 4-2, but came fighting back to whip Fontana, 12-3. There was a big crowd at the Ramona-Poly game and, to our disappointment, our cross-town rival edged us by a close 3-0 score. The next six games were off and on again affairs. The Bears managed a one run margin against San Bernardino, 4-3, but they lost to Colton 9-1. Avenging their first game with Pacific, the Bears returned to bury Pacific with a score of 15-0; but in the return game with Fontana they were defeated by a score of 9-6. The Bears beat Redlands by a slim one-run margin, 7-6, but lost again to Ramona with a close score of 3-2.

This same story was repeated when the Bears once again edged Redlands 4-3 but in their return game with San Bernardino lost by four points, 7-3.

Those baseball fans who appreciate hard-fought games and enthusiastic players enjoyed this 1961 season.

in the CBL

These boys are members of Poly's Varsity relay team. Tom Parramore and Ernie Ligon anxiously await their relay teammate while Mike MacLean prepares to blast off. Who won? You should have gone to the meet to find out.

This has been a record-breaking year in many respects, for Poly's swimmers. Records have been broken so often in the A and B divisions that they couldn't keep up on the new record board. The most consistent individuals were Dave Pallister, Dave Wheatley, Mike Smith and John Evans.

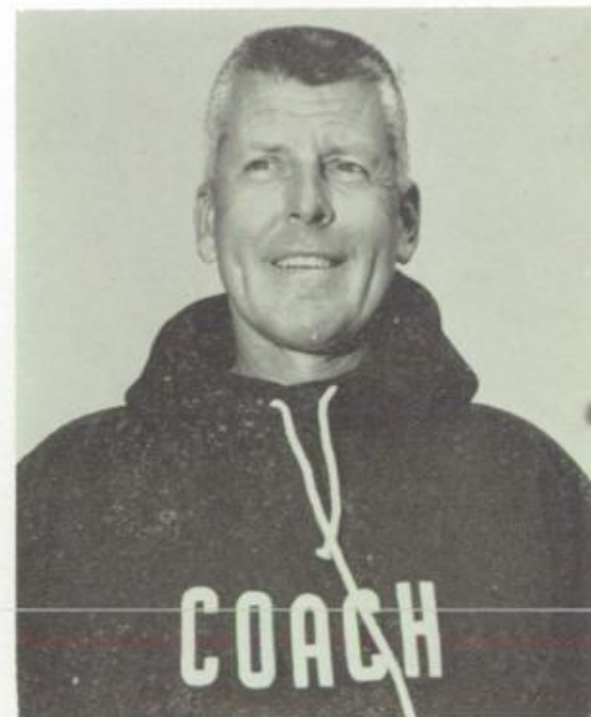

The Varsity team came through in wonderful style to remain undefeated in dual competition for the last three years. They placed second, by 2 points, in the Redlands Relays and won two championships within one week by taking the Upland Invitationals and the CBL in quick succession.

The B team lost only to Anaheim in dual meets, then went on to win all the rest and, like the Varsity, won the Redlands Relays, the Upland Invitationals and the CBL Championship. Four boys—Randy Snyder, Steve Webber, Mike Smith, and David Pallister—reached the CIF Finals in high positions and, among other things, tied and bettered the CIF 200 yard Freestyle Relay record. Dave placed 2nd in the finals in the 50 Free and the 100 Free, and Mike placed 4th in the Individual Medley. Together these boys placed 3rd in Freestyle Relay and 4th in overall Class B standing with 21 points.

The C team was short-handed this season but came through with six wins out of nine tries in dual meet competition.

Not to be forgotten in aquatic teams is the diving division. Because of the tremendous job of coaching three active teams, Coach Hallock called in Linda Cordill to help coach the divers. Within a month they made much visible improvement and took a 4th and 6th place in the CBL Finals.

Many seniors will be missed when next year rolls around as the teams will lose 16 stalwart paddlers from this year's squad of 60. These boys helped make this year the 9th Varsity and 8th B and C teams in 13 years to win CBL. This is a record to be proud of, a record that will be a challenge for future Poly swimmers.

"Swimmers, take your mark!" was the cry you heard as you walked by Cutter Park pool during the swim season. The source of the cry was Coach Hallock and the purpose was perfecting the swim techniques of his teams.

WALKER'S STORE FOR BOYS

Many of the records played by Diane Grinker and Don McCoy for their "Spotlight on the Air" were donated by CHENEY'S MUSIC STORE, 3931 Main Street.

"Whee . . . this is fun," Sandi Foulke informs Kathy Evans. But Kathy tells Sandi it isn't half as much fun as ironing with this Ironrite from the A-1 SHOP, 3774 Tenth Street.

Nothing is more refreshing after a rugged day of school than an iced coke from the B & B, 4450 Magnolia. Here, Carol Hull, Jay Decker, Irene Stephens, Dave Buck, Virginia Bonner, Daisy Williams, Joyce Clubb, Donna Forkert, and especially Haro'd Mantz, enjoy the friendly atmosphere and delicious food.

Dick Hunter and Randy Snyder inform the druggist at MUNDY'S PHARMACY, 6511 Magnolia Avenue, that they want the vitamins with more bounce to the ounce.

"This will be a perfect gift for my one and only," comments Bill Mayers to the saleswoman from DONNELL'S, 6748 Brockton Avenue.

Vaughn Hudson and Jane Straka are thoroughly satisfied, and you will be, too, with the top-quality cleaning and pressing done by the BELL COMPANY, 4344 Market.

"I'd like one of those pixie cuts," Sharon Soden tells the hairdresser at the TOWN AND COUNTRY BEAUTY SALON, 3760 Elizabeth Street. Whatever your choice in hair styles may be, the TOWN AND COUNTRY BEAUTY SALON will satisfy your every whim.

Carol Conn and Cap Murphy are putting this engine from BROWN ENGINE REBUILDING COMPANY, 3886 Seventh Street, to the test. The engine weathered the driving of Carol and the gymnastics of Cap and passed with flying colors.

Look out below, Harvey Chernack! The piece of lumber from CENTER LUMBER COMPANY, 6222 Magnolia Avenue, that Jo Anne Cullen is playfully aiming at you could make quite a dent!

"It's a long way down that alley," Katy Schrewe is thinking. But Attila Gungor is confident at the BOWLING CENTER OF RIVERSIDE, 4135 Chicago, where he enjoys the best in bowling facilities.

THE STATIONERS CORP., 3605 Plaza Mall, makes available to its customers the funniest in contemporary cards, as Marjorie Gallen and Dave Butler prove. The store also sells a variety of school supplies.

"I'll take ten pounds of your best ground round—big family, you know," Connie Thompson tells Biff Snider, the butcher from COUNTRY BOY MEAT CO., 6753 Brockton Avenue and 3158 Main Street.

Their mothers always said they would go up in the world. Charlie Drake, Bob Horacek, and Chuck Calley have a bird's-eye-view of the massive grounds of ROHR AIRCRAFT CORPORATION, 8200 Arlington Avenue.

"This is the COMMUNITY LOAN SERVICE, isn't it?" inquires Jack Jester. But it takes a business-minded woman like Claudia Shervanick to explain to Jack that the COMMUNITY LOAN SERVICE, 3836 Orange Street, isn't a share and share alike situation.

Connie Chace has found the ideal dress for her Saturday night date. She found this pert black and white cotton at G.K.C., 3612 Plaza Mall.

Arnette Parry and Fred Petermann admire the table setting by IMPERIAL HARDWARE, 3750 Main Street. This beautiful setting would be perfect in any dream home.

The RIVERSIDE DAILY PRESS AND ENTERPRISE, 3512 Fourteenth Street, supplied news concerning domestic and world events to people all over Riverside County. They gave Poly extensive sports coverage and supplemented their stories with action pictures such as this football shot.

This is what you look into while you say "cheese." Laura Sirks from SIRKS CAMERA SHOP, 3713 Main Street and 6729 Brockton Avenue, is giving Bill Grey a very technical lesson on the camera and its parts.

"There is something about a man in a tux from HOUSE OF TUX, 4027 Market Street," whispers Mary Beth Cochran to her date Dick Esgate.

Judy Platt gives Barbara Miller all the reasons why she should try on this black pump from A. R. COFFIN'S SHOE STORE, 3715 Main. Barbara can't argue Judy's valid reasons—but why in a size four?

You will find linoleum and shades in every color and design at RIVERSIDE SHADE AND LINOLEUM COMPANY, 6229 Magnolia. Dianne Cavender even claims that these pleasant surroundings help her keep a calm mind and steady hand while attacking her homework.

These future leaders of tomorrow, Sharon Chaffee, Lynn Carpenter, Ken Cox, and Pete Stull, look over this future milk-producer at the SWISS DAIRY, 4221 Buchanan Avenue.

Sharron Bowen, Judy Fischer, and Sandi Jensen say "cheese" as the photographer from AUSTIN STUDIOS, 3521 Main Street, snaps their picture.

"Oh, these rushed noon hours!" sighs Jay Kustner. Jay finds business a pleasure at KUSTNER'S PHARMACY, 3815 Main Street, with Dolly Krafton, Lynne Purl, Connie Chace, and Carol Eckert.

Mr. Rome of ROME'S TIRE AND AUTO SUPPLY gives Eric Fristad an estimate of the cost of his new General tires. Eric can rely on the good judgment and service of ROME'S TIRE AND SUPPLY, Twelfth and Market.

Ken Cummings and Sandra Gilleland relax with a coke while waiting for their grinders from D'ELIA'S GRINDER HAVEN, Eighth and Kansas Street and 3760 Eighth Street.

You will find the finest in tropical plants at RIVERSIDE TROPICAL, 5426 Grand. Linda Hasten and Dan Searle chose one of these lovely orchid corsages for a gift.

"Hark! I see a potato field approaching," Commander Bob Burgess tells his driver Ron Sappington. "Prepare our tractor, from JOHNSON TRACTOR CO., 3133 Seventh Street, for battle."

Sandi Macdonald and John McCune shop at the chair house . . . a storehouse of gifts . . . rich and strange . . . from the markets of the world . . . from mice to matches . . . the chair house . . . lois and gilbert smith . . . 6745 brockton avenue.

It's spring time, and Karen Skorheim, like every clothes-minded girl, is conscious of the pretty new cottons. Karen models a sheath from PAM'S DRESS SHOP, 3760 Ninth Street, where you'll find all the newest in casual and dressy fashions.

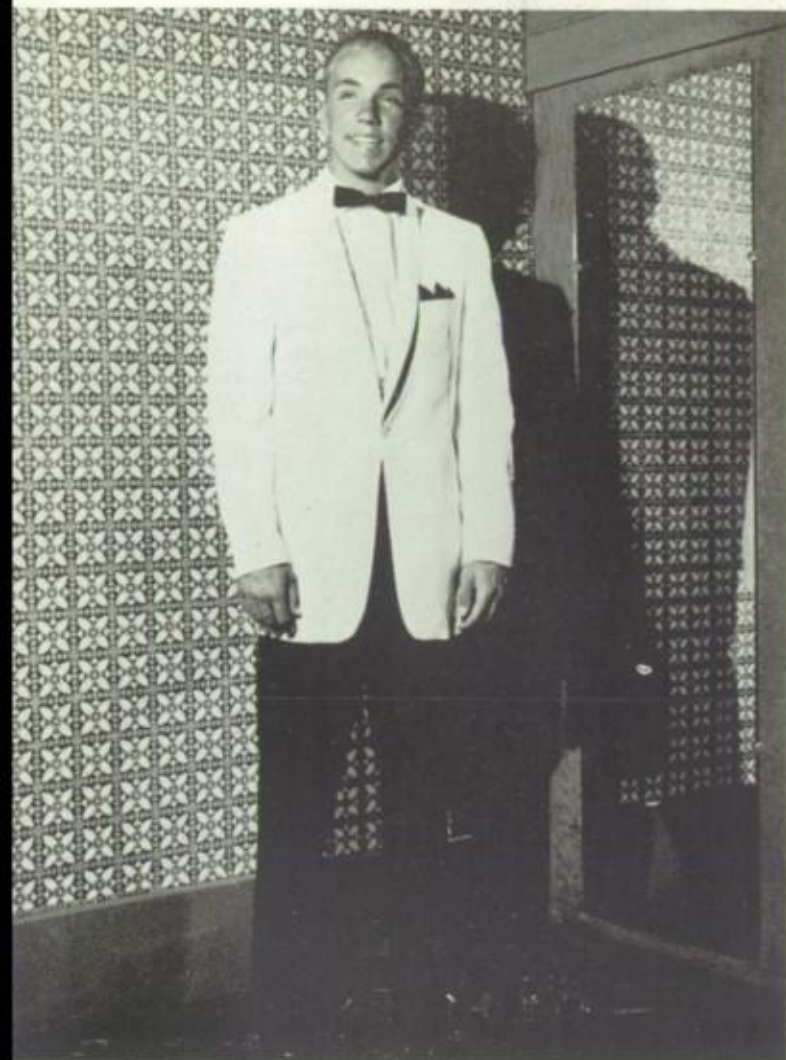

Just sign here, Steve Dole, and your future will be secure with DOLE AND CO., Insurance, 3682 Main Street. This fact, of course, holds true with everyone who insures with DOLE AND CO.

Kathey Wheelis models a black sheath from KRISTY'S, 3598 Plaza Mall and 3961 Main Street. This dress, as well as the other wonderful dresses from KRISTY'S, would be a favorite in any girl's wardrobe.

The musical ability of Jennifer Jones is at its best on an organ from COOPER'S MUSIC, 4255 Main Street. From the looks of Yance Hirschi's drooping eye lids, the combination of COOPER'S-Jones is soothing to the senses.

Dave Wheatley finds it economical and convenient to rent his evening wear at RENT-A-TUX, 3581 Eighth Street.

"Fido is getting restless; you hold her for a while, Gail," Marilyn Bagwell kids Gail Wegner while they enjoy the comfortable furnishings from SEARS, ROEBUCK AND CO., 3720 Main Street. (Fido is from SEARS, also.)

Experience, ability, dependability and fine equipment make FIELD STUDIOS OF PHOTOGRAPHY, 3616 Main Street, one of the top names in Riverside photography.

Join me? Now really . . . who could resist an invitation to the money vault of the SECURITY FIRST NATIONAL BANK, 3800 Main and 6370 Magnolia, Sandee Blutman and Tom Brill would like to know.

Oblivious to the impending pillow attack, Kay Brown tells her friends, Patsy Stone, Ann Wiesner, Joan Male, and Sharon La Bonde, about the lovely bedroom furnishings found at HUFFMAN'S FURNITURE STORE, 3498 Eighth Street.

Andy Petlansky, Larry Semrau, Jim Creager, and Darrell Vittone soon discovered that in cars from ECONOMOTORS INC., 3506 Main Street, you can go twice as far with the same amount of money.

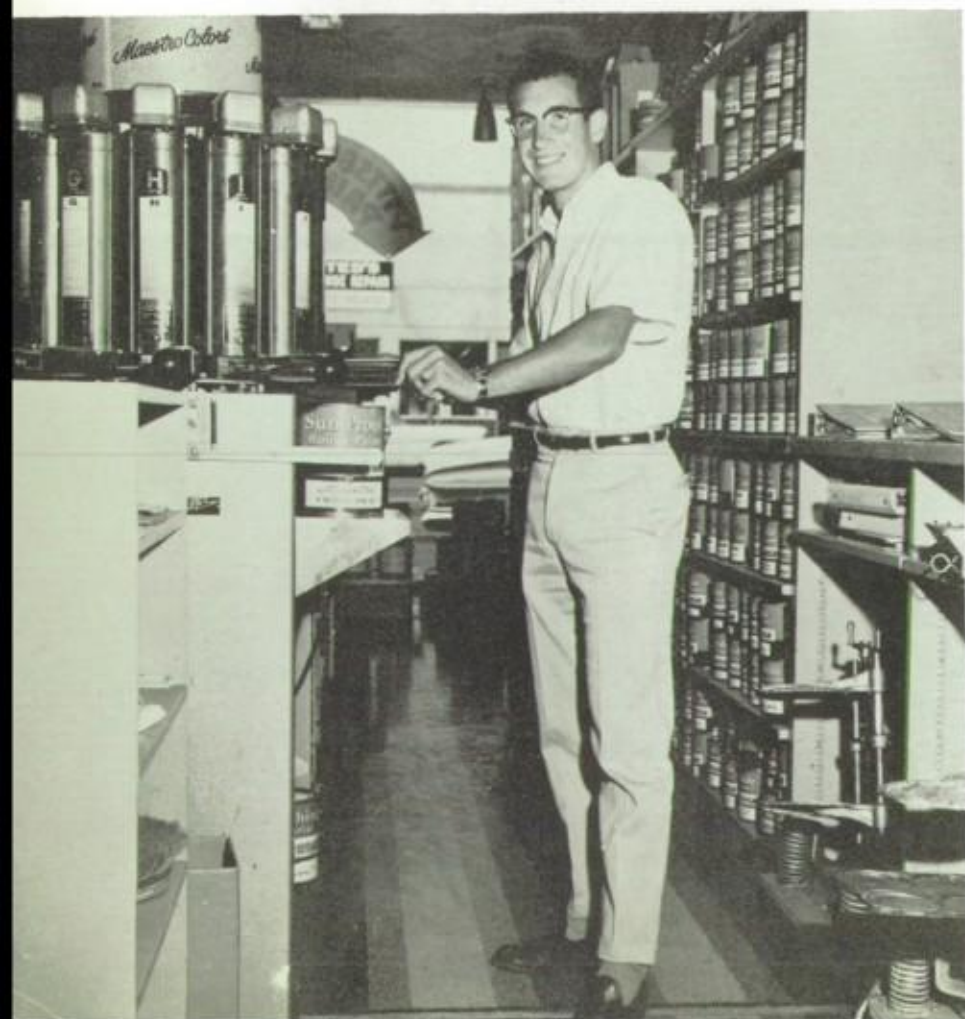

Sue Molitor exemplifies the "Knowing Look" in student fashions and in her approach to the growing importance of education.

THE HARRIS COMPANY DEPARTMENT STORES
San Bernardino - Redlands - Riverside

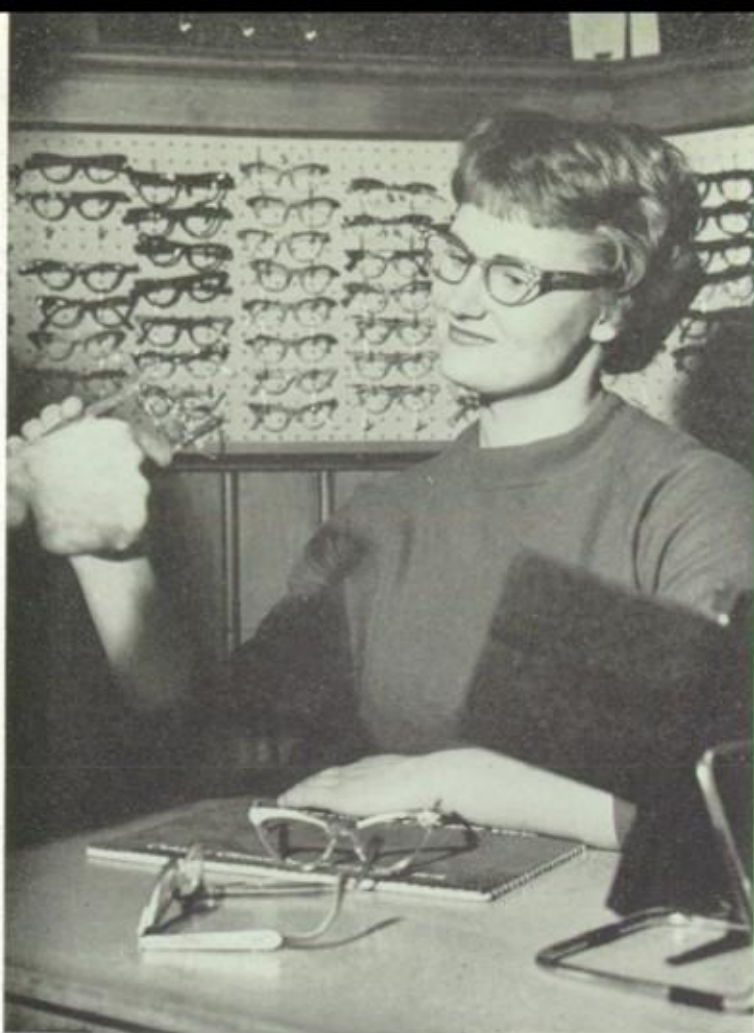

Sue Skelley and Dean Stringham anticipate the dinner of sizzling hot tacos, enchiladas, and tamales they will be served. For the finest and best in Mexican food, go to the LA PALOMA, 1795 Eighth Street.

"Be ambitious next week end!" suggests Steve Webber. Steve is going to paint his old bike, but whatever you decide to paint, use top-quality Pittsburg Paints, available at PITTSBURGH PLATE GLASS CO., 3550 Eighth Street.

"I dreamed I went dancing in my GODA GOWN," relates Carol Gyde to Linda Cordill. Carol and Linda made their dreamland a reality by shopping at GODA GOWN SHOP, 3919 Eighth Street.

Choosing glasses is a pleasure at RIVERSIDE OPTICAL COMPANY, 4015 Main Street. As Janet Loomis discovers, the RIVERSIDE OPTICAL COMPANY has the right color and style frame for each individual.

Judy Graumann tries out her new heels from HAROLD'S SHOES, 3874 Main Street, while Jo Nell Swanson attempts to make a selection from the seven pairs she "just adores."

"This oil filter from ALLBRIGHT'S AUTOMOTIVE STORES, Eighth and Fairmount, 3707 Van Buren Avenue, 3747 Central Avenue, will be an advantage to Kathy Barto when she changes my car oil," Don Unland tells the ALLBRIGHT'S salesman. How lucky you are, Kathy.

CLOCK

MICKI OF RIVERSIDE, 6745 Brockton Avenue, has prepared Tina Rataj, Barbara Drake, and Margaret Johnson for the inevitable summer weather. With a bermuda outfit, a party dress, and a swim suit they will be cool and appropriately dressed for every occasion.

Indeed this is a very special occasion for Karen West. No, she's not getting married, but she is modeling a very lovely bridal gown from MICKI'S.

Adding to the excitement of the evening and to the beauty of Liz Cameron's formal is this lovely corsage that Fran Gunther bought at the FLOWER MART, 3587 Plaza Mall.

"Dream along with me," invites Maribeth Jester. This travel information made available by the WORLD TRAVEL SERVICE, INC., 3697 Main Street, plus this accommodating service can help to make your travel dreams come true.

"Come on, girls, let's get this job moving," says Barry Wallihan as he supervises the work done by Donna Hawkins and Barbara Boynton. Donna and Barbara are loading lumber from JOHN SUVERKRUP LUMBER CO., 3625 First Street.

"The salesgirl told me that one whiff of this perfume and the fellas are goners," Lynne Baughn relates to Sharon Jensen. PRINGLE DRUG CO., 3996 Main Street, has just made two more steady customers.

"Yes, this four inch sole will definitely add height, and our rubber soled casual shoe will better enable you to sprint to class," the salesman from PRESTON'S SHOES, 6734 Brockton Avenue, informs Walter Ingalls and Brian MacWhinney.

TUXIE'S, 6030 Magnolia Avenue, is well known to all hungry Riverside teenagers. Kathy Schrewe, Barbie Drake, Sharon Dudlettes, Maribeth Jester, Peggy Hansen, and Attila Gungor agree that an ice cold coke and a juicy TUXIE'S hamburger is a treat at any time.
